SCUTARI IS TAKEN BY ASSAULT

Montenegrin Troops Storm Turkish Fortress After Siege Lasting Six Months

King Nicholas, Ignoring Threats of Powers' Blockading Fleet, Wins in Desperate Battle

CETTINJE, Montenegro, April 23.—After a final desperate attack lasting 24 hours, the Montenegrin troops forced their way into Scutari. The fortress for six months, since the middle of October, 1912, had offered a stubborn and heroic defense. The assault that gave the Montenegrins possession of the city, which has been the sole object of their war against Turkey, began on Monday night. The Montenegrin army took the offensive along the entire front. They completely surprised the Ottoman defenders by pushing right up to the Turkish positions, where they engaged in bayonet fighting. The Ottoman soldiers made a number of counter attacks and tried with their utmost energy to drive the attacking force out of their works, but they were finally compelled to fall back and leave their positions in the hands of the besiegers, who received constant reinforcements. It was midnight last night when the Montenegrins obtained their footing in the fortress and detachments of the besiegers entered the city at 4 o'clock this morning.

FORESAW THE END. According to the report, Essad Pasha, the Turkish commander in Constantinople, recognized the uselessness of further resistance after the outlying key position of Tarakosch had fallen. He is said then to have ordered his troops to cease their defense of the fortress. Another report says that the Montenegrin commander-in-chief has been negotiating since Monday with Essad Pasha for the surrender of the place. Still another account says that the Turkish troops defended the city until the last. Although the Serbian troops did not participate in the final attack, their artillery was used by the Montenegrin gunners and is said that to this fact their success largely was due. The act of capitulation was signed by the Turkish commander shortly after the Montenegrin troops had reached the center of the city.

CITY IN RUINS. VIENNA, Austria, April 23.—The greater part of the City of Scutari is in ruins as a result of the six months' bombardment, according to dispatches received here today.

SURRENDER COMPLICATES. LONDON, April 23.—While the capture of Scutari by the Montenegrin troops is believed in European capitals to have complicated the situation created by the decision of the great powers to include Scutari in the future state of Albania, the opposite view is held in Balkan circles. There the opinion prevails that the Montenegrins, having accomplished the object they have aimed at since the beginning of the war, will find it more easy to accept the decision of the great powers, and that the latter,

WALKER NOT UPHOLD IN COURT

Continental Building and Loan Wins Against Commissioner Before Judge Seawell

Charge of Hazardous Practice Denied; Company to Liquidate Own Affairs

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The State of California had no right in the person of its building and loan commissioner, George S. Walker, to force the office doors of the Continental Building and Loan Association and to order the office safe open. This was the finding of Judge Seawell, who held today in the superior court that Walker's charges of hazardous practice by the management were not sufficiently specific, and directed that the existing officers of the association be permitted to liquidate its affairs. Walker has been in possession of the Continental offices, but not the books since last August. When the office safe yielded to a crackman's chief, it was found to hold only a hod of coal. Gavin McNab, a director, later produced the books, offering to let Walker's agents examine them if they were kept in the safe of the superior court. Pending Judge Seawell's decision today, this was done.

WILL LIQUIDATE CONCERN. The directors will now proceed with plans of liquidation which they have promised to guarantee depositors and shareholders alike dollar for dollar. Walker moved from three sides against the Continental. First he charged that it was insolvent. Then he ordered the safe open. Then he refused to take possession, which today Judge Seawell refused to affirm. Lastly there is pending a suit against William A. Corbin, general manager of the association, who recently was held by a police judge for trial in the superior court on charges of making false returns to the building and loan commissioner.

THE COURT'S DECISION. The substance of Judge Seawell's decision is that Walker, when he discovered alleged irregularities, might have ordered the officers of the institution to correct them, and if his mandate had been obeyed there would have been no necessity for a seizure. The court's decision of the status under which the proceedings were brought and in referring to the seizure and the provision of the law, said in part: "If they had refused to comply with the order or to surrender the safe, the bank in a safe manner, and not hazardous to the public, it would not have been necessary to make a seizure. Of course, if it was found that the bank was violating the charter and had refused to comply with the order of the commissioner, then it would have been proper to make a seizure. Neither of these allegations is made in the complaint. To me the complaint is obscure as to how the business was being conducted in an unsafe manner and hazardous to the public. The defendants were certainly entitled to specifications in regard to the grounds for action and were also entitled to an opportunity to correct the things complained of."

NO CHARGES PROVEN. The court has not the right to assume that the corporation was in an unsafe condition. If it was in such a condition, it was in such a condition.

FLEE FROM SLAVERY INQUIRY

Millionaire Bixby Reported to Be Among Missing in Vice Case

Detectives Search in Vain for Wealthy Man Accused of Grave Crime

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—An inquiry of prospective witnesses followed the anouncement that the county grand jury would begin today an investigation of the allegations that more than forty girls and young women of this city had been made the victims of millionaire white slavers. Chief among the missing was George H. Bixby, the Long Beach millionaire, named in charges made by a number of girls. Detectives searched nearly all day yesterday and all of last night for Bixby, and reported today "missing."

LAWYERS GIVE ASSURANCE. Members of the legal firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, Bixby's attorneys, said that while they had not seen Bixby either yesterday or today, they were confident he "had nothing to run away from."

The grand jury was occupied with a city hall case this morning, and did not summon any of the white slavery witnesses until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Among the men witnesses asked to testify was E. J. Fleming, a prominent attorney, and former member of the district attorney's staff.

ACCUSED OF PANDERING. Mrs. Josie Rosenberg, of the Jonquil resort, charged with being chief of the procurers for "The Black Pearl" and his millionaire associates, was arraigned on the charge of pandering before Justice of the Peace Reeve, but her case was not over pending the outcome of the grand jury inquiry. Chief among the witnesses against her is Mrs. Marie Brown-Levy.

Another white slavery case resulted today in the arrest of J. S. Manney, owner of a motion picture theater, who is accused jointly with Miss Ferey Neugebath, having contributed to the delinquency of Christine Neal, a 17-year-old girl.

A. P. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS ELECTED

John F. Connors Chosen Western Nominating Committeeman

NEW YORK, April 23.—At the fourteenth annual meeting of the Associated Press held here yesterday, J. S. McClatchey of the Sacramento Bee was re-elected a director of the association by the largest vote given any director of the five elected. The others who were elected for a term of three years with McClatchey were: Charles H. Roper, Clark, Hartford, (Conn.) Courier; Charles W. Knapp, St. Louis Republic; Clark Howell, Atlanta Constitution; Charles A. Rook, Pittsburgh Dispatch; Samuel Bowles of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican was elected for two years to fill the unexpired term of Frederick Roy Martin, resigned.

Eight members of the Associated Press were elected from the United States at large as a nominating committee to name directors to be voted for in April, 1914.

John F. Connors of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE was elected on the committee made in St. Louis in January, 1914.

G. B. Daniels, proprietor of the Oakland Register and The Oakland Times made application for the Associated Press franchise for The Morning Times. His application was unanimously denied at the opening meeting of the Association.

The following are the advisory boards of the Associated Press elected yesterday: Eastern Division Advisory Board—E. H. Butler, Buffalo News; John R. Rathen, Providence Journal; Ogden Mills Reid, New York Tribune; George A. Oliver,

FIND IDENTITY OF MAN LOST TO SELF

Mysterious Stranger Is the Son of Idaho Banker

DENVER, April 23.—Frederick A. Gorham Jr. of Payette, Idaho, the author of the "Mystery" story, is the man who appealed to the police last night for aid in finding out who he was. Chief of Police Felix O'Neill received a telegram this morning from Harvey O. Carr, superintendent of police at Grand Rapids, Mich., asking him to extend every courtesy to Gorham, and stating that relatives were on the way to Denver to take him in charge.

Gorham is being cared for at the City and County Hospital, where physical and psychological examinations were conducted during the day in an effort to determine the cause of his condition. He talks rationally and seems in a normal state, except that his recollection extends only as far back as last Sunday, when he arrived in Denver.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 23.—Frederick A. Gorham Jr. is the son of Frederick A. Gorham, third vice-president of the Michigan Trust Company of this city. The latter is convinced that the man who lost his identity in Denver is his son.

Until he heard of the Denver situation today, Gorham was unaware where his son was and has been conducting a quiet search for him for two weeks since young Gorham left Chicago going west. The young man was taken sick on the train and left it at Omaha. Since then the father lost all trace of him until today.

SECRETARY COMING TO EXPLAIN GRAVITY OF ALIEN SITUATION

Senate Expresses Willingness to Hear National Side of Case; Wilson Would Delay Land Bill

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Wilson today telegraphed Governor Hiram Johnson of California asking him whether the anti-alien legislation could be held up until Secretary of State Bryan could go to California personally to explain the position of the federal government and urge an adjustment of the controversy.

The President's telegram was in response to Governor Johnson's message of yesterday that California desired to co-operate with the federal government to avoid international difficulties.

It was as follows: "Governor Hiram Johnson, Sacramento, Calif.:

"Thank you for your patriotic telegram. We find it so difficult from this distance to understand fully the situation with regard to the sentiments and circumstances lying back of the pending proposition concerning the ownership of land in the state that I venture to inquire whether it would be agreeable to you and the legislature to have the Secretary of State visit Sacramento for the purpose of consulting with you and the members of the legislature and co-operating with you and them in the settlement of the controversy. I meet the views of the people of the state and yet leave untouched the international obligations of the United States."

WOODROW WILSON.

TELEGRAMS TO SODOVS. The same telegram was duplicated to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly.

At the White House it was felt that conflicting advice over the situation made it practically necessary for a representative of the administration to explain the government's exact position in person. There was no feeling, officials said, that the suggestion would not be welcome, because Governor Johnson's telegram of yesterday was "a course would satisfy Japan for the fullest co-operation between the state and the federal government. Representative Kettner (Dem.) of California, brought the President some telegrams indicating that while there was strong sentiment to drop the legislation entirely on account of the approaching exposition and the opening of the Panama canal, there also was, nevertheless, a formidable movement to keep the law, called discriminating legislation at this session.

WILL SATISFY JAPAN. News of the President's suggestion to send Secretary Bryan soon spread throughout diplomatic circles. The opinion was freely expressed that the President's course would satisfy Japan that the federal government was doing everything in its power. It is understood that the Japanese ambassador has made no formal representation since a warlike attitude had been entered against the legislation and that the attitude of the Washington administration is regarded with satisfaction.

AMERICAN RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN NATIONS. Relations with foreign nations was the subject of a conference today between Secretary Bryan and members of the senate foreign relations committee.

BRYAN TO OUTLINE IDEAS. Bryan had been asked to appear before the committee to outline his ideas as to a series of treaties looking toward international peace, but members of the committee had many other questions to put to the secretary of state regarding Japanese, Mexican and British affairs.

At the Japanese Embassy today it was stated on behalf of Ambassador Chinda that nothing could be said until the final form of the proposed California legislation had been developed, and all reports quoting the ambassador or embassy officials to any other effect were denounced as untrue.

EMBASSY IN DENIAL. In view of various published reports, this formal statement was issued at the Japanese embassy today.

"No visit has been made by the ambassador to the White House this week, nor has he ever been invited to any body at such an alarming outcome of the situation as a possible war between the two countries. In such a contingency has not been discussed in any place, so that such a statement is entirely untrue."

The mine is on fire and repeated attempts of rescue parties to enter the mine frustrated by the flames.

Citizens Overjoyed When Kidnaped Boy Is Found

COLUMBIA, Mich., April 23.—A demonstration of joy by the citizens of this city, who are extremely interested in the case, has followed the identification of Robert Dunbar, the 4-year-old child who was kidnaped at Okemos, Mich., about nine months ago and found by the authorities here in the keeping of an itinerant peddler, W. C. Walters. Thirty crowded automobiles paraded through the streets and Sheriff Day, who refused to accept the $500 reward offered for the return of the child, was wildly cheered. His

RING, RING, WHO HAS THE RING?

No Game, But a Real Bread Search for Missing Solitaire.

LOST—One diamond engagement ring, highly treasured and valued at $500, will likely be found in the center of a miniature loaf of bread given away at the manufacturers' local produce exhibit in the Kahn building. Please return promptly to Miss Alma Rother, 222 Twenty-eighth street.

Companions working with Miss Rother in bread-making demonstration department heard a cry of consternation yesterday afternoon. Tears were running down her cheeks and threatening to add salt and moisture to the doughy mass over which she was manipulating machinery.

Explanations between sobers told of the loss of a ring. "It was a diamond—and." There some kind hearted person supplied the missing words "and it was your engagement ring?" Miss Rother was able to admit the fact.

BREAD RETURNED.
Manager Fred Parsons got busy immediately. Policemen were stationed at the doors and the miniature loaves of bread that had been distributed among the visitors were gathered in by Secretary Eric Boegle, Jr., and other volunteers whose hearts were touched by Miss Rother's tears. For a half hour the doors of the exhibit remained closed. Over 150 of the loaves were opened but the ring which Miss Rother values dearly because of its associations, did not materialize. The associations being those of Mrs. Rother, manager of the San Francisco Electric Company.

Now Miss Rother is sending out an appeal and she is also willing to offer a liberal reward to the finder. She has been reassured both by Rother, her prospective husband, and the committee of the missing solitaire. That the ring will be returned and that all will be smiles and sunny skies once more. As it is, Miss Rother is the only one in Oakland that is sorry she had anything to do with the exhibit.

This morning the playground department added a display showing the work and models of the different recreation parks, with statistics of out of door amusements in Oakland.

FIRE DOES DAMAGE TO GROCERY STORE

Fire, which is believed to have originated from a gas range in the Eagle Restaurant, on Telegraph avenue, spread to the grocery store of Harry Vavilios, 1825 Telegraph avenue, where it caused damage amounting to $150. The fire occurred about 10 o'clock this morning, and was quickly extinguished by the fire department. The property belongs to J. B. McKee.

POLICEMAN DIES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Patrolman George A. Sullivan of Company A, of the police department, died at his home, 1240 Mission street, this morning, from tuberculosis. He was 43 years old and was appointed to the department July 1, 1904.

AMERICAN PEOPLE NEGLECT KIDNEYS

Make Much of Little Ailments, But Generally Neglect the Kidneys Which Control Purity of Blood.

While Americans seek efficiency in every department of life, purity in foods and drinks and complete and sound surroundings in their preparation, nevertheless they, as a whole, overlook their kidneys, whose failure to properly keep their work places the system in a condition where it is unable to cope with and destroy disease germs.

They go to all other lengths to protect health, yet commonly neglect to watch their kidneys, whose function it is to keep impurities out of the blood, to keep it healthy and pure, that the body and vital forces may be strong and resist and destroy germs, ever ready to attack with success the weakened system. The kidneys keep the blood pure or they fail in their work. Don't neglect your kidneys. Examine them with the Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, a great remedy for this terrible disease. It has a record for relief of kidney, liver and bladder troubles of over 35 years. It has brought recovery of health to thousands.

GREAT TROTTERING MARE TWILIGHT LEAVES TWILIGHT OF HER FAME

TROTTER TWILIGHT AND HER OWNER, A. S. HINDS. TWILIGHT IS DEAD AT EMERYVILLE AFTER A REMARKABLE TRACK CAREER.

The career of the mare "Twilight," the great trotter, owned by A. L. Hinds, was brought to a close Monday by death, the once famous Emeryville favorite succumbing to old age. "Twilight" was foaled twenty-two years ago at Emeryville and was owned by Dennis Cannon. Her time record was 2:15, but she stopped a mile in 2:12 with Cannon at the reins. Ten years ago she established a record for the two-mile course at Emeryville, doing it in 4:45, which held until three years ago, when George Perry clipped off one-fourth of a second. In this race she was the only trotter, the other five entries being pacers.

A. L. Hinds, who owned the mare at the time of her death, is one of the oldest rousters in the country, and the old horse with Hinds at the reins has stepped some very fast times on local tracks.

REV. JUMP TALKS TO OAKLAND CLUB

"Friendliness to the Foreigner" Is Pastor's Subject for Afternoon Theme.

"Friendliness to the Foreigner" was the subject of an address by the Rev. Herbert A. Jump before the Oakland Club this afternoon. Mrs. L. A. Bunnell was the vocalist, and instrumental numbers were rendered by a string quartet under the direction of E. Carpenter. Dr. L. P. Crane was chairman of the committee on arrangements, and was assisted by a number of the club members.

Immigration and ways of helping the immigrant to our shores are topics which have been occupying the attention of the Oakland Club recently, and the talk by Rev. Jump was heard with keen interest. He said in part:

"The first scene of the fourth act of Macbeth is being enacted in American life today. You remember the picture of the witches stirring up the cauldron, pouring into it toads and snakes and lizards, Turks, Jews and Tartars, and then singing, 'Mingle, mingle, mingle, That is the meeting of our race; With all sorts of humbly, good, bad and indifferent, being poured into our democracy, and the bubbling and boiling going on more and more merrily with each day.'

"The prime question is whether witches or angels are to preside over this melting pot of our nation. It rests with such civic and philanthropic forces as are represented here today to determine what shall await the foreigner after he has landed.

"We need to have a detective sympathy that will discover the personal backgrounds of those foreign-born Americans who cross our path.

"We need to tailor our education to fit the foreigner's needs.

"We should appeal to inherited patriotism rather than try to suppress them. The loyal Englishman, the loyal American, the loyal foreigner who comes to our shores. We should utilize this noble history instead of blotting it out of memory."

DR. DUBOIS, COLORED AUTHOR, TO SPEAK HERE

W. E. B. Dubois, the most prominent negro, after Booker T. Washington, has been announced to speak here. He will speak in Oakland on May 7 and 8, at meetings open to the general public, according to plans now being laid by the Negro Business Men's League of Oakland, representing over 60 colored business men, and the northern California branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, representing the 10,000 negroes about San Francisco Bay, and many white people who are the members of the society.

Dr. Dubois is the possessor of various degrees from Harvard University and the University of Berlin, and was for 14 years professor of economics and history at Atlanta University. He is editor of the Crisis, organ of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and their director of publicity. He is author of numerous books on the life and problems of the colored people, of which the best known are "The Souls of Black Folk," "The Quest of the Silver Fleece," and "The Negro Problem."

BROADWAY GIRL ACT IS THING OF BEAUTY

The Broadway girl act of the last half of this week is offering one of the most expensive and scientifically beautiful posing acts that has ever visited this country, "My Lady's Fans." The act was made by Julian Dove, an artist of Paris, and is presented exclusively over the Sullivan and Consideine circuit for the first time in this country. Six girls, chosen both for the beauty of their face and symmetry of their figures, act as figures for the wonderful act creations that Dove has invented. The act is one of the marvels of vaudeville and will only be seen at the Broadway for the last four days of this week, ending its engagement in Oakland next Saturday night. This is only one of six hit Sullivan-Consideine acts that opened the bill at the Broadway today for the regular mid-week change.

PRESIDENT OF CUBA NAMES NEW CABINET

CHAPARRA, Orense Province, Cuba, April 23.—General Juan Marie Menocal, the newly proclaimed president of Cuba, today announced his cabinet as follows: Secretary of Interior, Aurelio Hevia, lawyer; treasury, Leopoldo Candia, lawyer; public health, Enrique Nunez Y. Ramirez, professor of medicine at National University; state, Comea de la Terriere, administrator to Spain; justice, Christobal de la Guardia, lawyer; agriculture, Emilio Nunez, merchant; education, Esquequi Orcey Ennesat university professor; public works, Jose R. Villalaz Sanchez, ex-secretary of public works.

OAKLAND ELKS WILL BE HOSTS

Interesting Jinks Planned by Members of Local Lodge Tonight.

Oakland Lodge of Elks, No. 171, will hold an entertainment tonight at the club rooms at Fourteenth street and Broadway. An interesting program is included in the plans prepared by the committee, which will be participated in by members of the club. Dr. R. F. Tisdale, Frank Gar-side, Otto Rittler, Charles Endris, M. Horvinski and others are among those working for the success of the affair. Included in the program will be two four-round boxing bouts, two wrestling matches and a number of comedy events. The boxing events will see Sweeney vs. Haskins at 135 pounds and McGuire vs. Peasey, 122 pounds, in action. In the wrestling events Al Lavens will meet Chief Perry at 135 pounds and Joe Gupitli will tangle with C. Sauer at 145 pounds. Solos by Tom Hogan and Vallendine Fleming will also be numbered in the program. Joseph Sherry, John Toohig and Otto Rittler will feature in a number of comedy acrobatic stunts. Only members will be allowed to attend, and the committee announces that the event will be the biggest given by the club in many moons.

EIGHT PEDESTALS WAIT FOR HEROES

Pan-American Union Shows Dearth of Busts in Main Hall.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Only 13 of the 21 republics on the western hemisphere which form the Pan-American Union have raised statues of their national heroes in the magnificent marble building here devoted to advancing the interests of Pan-Americanism. In the main hall of the building stand 21 marble pedestals. On ten of these are busts of chosen national heroes, while three other Latin American countries have selected the subjects to be thus honored.

George Washington is this country's contribution to the Hall of American Republics' Fame. Bolivar, who achieved the independence of Colombia, Peru and Bolivia, as well as of Venezuela, is the representative of the last named country. Monuments to him stand also in the capitals of Venezuela, Peru and Colombia. San Martin, father of Argentine independence, is that country's hero. Brazil has the priest hero, Bonifacio, Mexico, its two-time president, Benito Juarez; Cuba, Marti; Honduras, Morazan; Costa Rica, Mora; Panama, Herrera; and Haiti, Messallines. Uruguay has chosen Arriaga; Guatemala, Barrios; and the Dominican republic, Luperon, although these three statues are not yet made.

Is this your boy? Is he too weak and sickly to join his companions in play, and are you helpless in spite of your utmost efforts to make him well? What have you done toward building up his blood? Dirty and blood is what he needs most, if he is to become active and strong.

Have you given him Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People? They are the remedy every growing boy or girl needs to build up the blood and bring health, strength, a good color, a hearty appetite and strong nerves.

An instructive booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request.

Get the pills from your druggist at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50 or from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

S. F. CARRIES ITS TELEPHONE RATE REDUCTION

Special Election Recalls Judge Weller and Gives Crist Office.

Geary Road Pact Is Favored by Nearly Two to One.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The Market street railway traffic agreement between the board of supervisors and the United Railroads was carried by a two-to-one vote in the special election yesterday, and as a result its ratification the Geary Street Municipal Road will be completed, from beach to ferries, by July 1; the Sutter cars will have the right to run to the ferry and the horse cars are abolished.

Poll Judge Weller was recalled by more than 800 votes, losing out to Wiley Crist, the candidate of the recall forces. Crist won in the residence districts where the women's vote was heavy.

The ordinance of the telephone users' association to reduce telephone rates was adopted by over three thousand votes.

Following are the complete returns:

PROPOSITION NO. 1.
Street railroad traffic agreement:
Yes	33,093
No	21,330
Majority for agreement	11,763
PROPOSITION NO. 2.

Majority for adoption	2,864
PROPOSITION NO. 3.
Election to police court bench:
Wiley Crist, candidate Women's	36,784
Recall League	23,987
Judge Charles Weller (incumbent)	23,907

OFFICIAL COUNT.
The official count will begin next Monday. It will take two or three days. The certificate of election will be issued to Crist as soon as he qualifies. He will replace Judge Weller by a week from next Saturday, according to Registrar Zemansky.

Mayor Rolph and the supervisors, who made such a hard campaign for the railway traffic agreement, were jubilant last night, declaring that one of the big transportation problems of the city had been solved.

Following the announcement of the election results, Mayor Rolph said, in part:

"I congratulate the city on the triumph of municipal ownership, in spite of the unreasonable activities of certain citizens who wear the livery of public ownership to serve the corporations."

"I suggest that the so-called Public Ownership association purchase one of the two horse cars now running in San Francisco and soon to be the relics of the past and use it hereafter for its headquarters."

ADVANCE CHARGE WILL BE BARRED

Provision against the insistence of corporations upon charging in advance for service to be rendered was made today by the inclusion of a protective clause in the telephone rate ordinance, introduced and given its first reading before the city council this morning. The ordinance fixes the rates for the coming year as they are at present.

The protective clause provides that while the telephone company cannot enforce the payment of rentals in advance of service, charges to protect the company from loss may be made for installation. The installation charges can only be made under the following provision: "Provided, however, that where charges are made for installation of telephone service, any sum of money so paid to any such person, firm or corporation furnishing such telephone service and making such installation shall be repaid to the person, firm or corporation paying the same one year from the date of payment thereof, with interest at 6 per cent per annum; provided, however, that such person, firm or corporation rendering such telephone service may deduct from such installation charge any delinquent sum or sums which may be due from the person, firm or corporation for telephone service according to the schedule hereinafter and in Section 1 enumerated; provided, further, that the rates for telephone service heretofore enumerated shall be collectable by the person, firm or corporation furnishing the same for the current month for which such service is rendered."

CRUELTY IS CHARGE OF MISMATED ONES

Agnes Risdon has complained that Charles Risdon, her husband, was in the habit of treating her in a cruel manner, to wit: Slapping her, choking her and by breaking the furniture and dishes. She wants a divorce from him for that reason.

Charles L. Rivers is suing for annulment of his marriage to Myrtle Rivers, alleging that they could not get along together.

Marie Stuenkel was granted a final decree from Albert Staliche on the grounds of cruelty.

All Others Equally Low

Why We Can Do This—

The great institution of Eilers operating more than forty stores on the Pacific Coast has taken over the entire output of two of America's greatest piano factories, making nothing but high-grade goods, in keeping with a house of Eilers standing, and in order to secure this exclusive representation it was necessary to purchase ten carloads of pianos already on the Coast or en route. It is impossible and far from practical (from a business standpoint) to keep our money tied up in these pianos until fall trade opens, and if we turned this stock for absolute cash we will have gained our point—that of securing the exclusive right to these instruments on the Coast. We want to place these goods in representative homes in Oakland and vicinity, where they will do the most good for their makers and for Eilers by building up a reputation and creating a demand for the future. To this end for the next few days we are offering these new pianos at unheard of prices on your own terms.

SEATTLE, April 23.—Peter Larsen, aged 28, and Dan Webb, aged 65, were instantly killed yesterday, and Palm Beach and two other persons were injured, when they were engaged in demolishing the old Lawton school building on Twenty-fifth Avenue West. Inside wall on the south end of the building collapsed and in falling fell the east wall outward on the lot.

"This weather simply takes the life right out of me; I can hardly drag one foot after the other," said a run-down doctor.

We want to say to every such person in this vicinity: Don't blame the weather; it's your condition. You need a strengthening tonic and the best known is Vinol, which is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil and tonic from the cod fish.

For the doctor to come to our attention from Vineland, N. J. Mrs. Alice T. Godfrey says: "I never fail to give a good word for Vinol, for it restores my strength and health. ## MYSTERIOUS SHOTS PUZZLE SOCIETY

Midnight Firing Mystery; Burlingame Curious to Know Cause.

BURLINGAME, April 23.—Five staccato shots which punctuated the midnight air of aristocratic Burlingame, in the neighborhood of the homes of J. W. Cook, wealthy automobile dealer, and Ray Spivale, clubman and four merchant, early Friday morning, have set society and poldom, as well as the more sedate element of the pretty suburb, keenly on edge with curiosity.

So far as can be discovered, no one was hurt, but a web of mystery sufficient to cover a perfectly good tragedy has been woven around the incident.

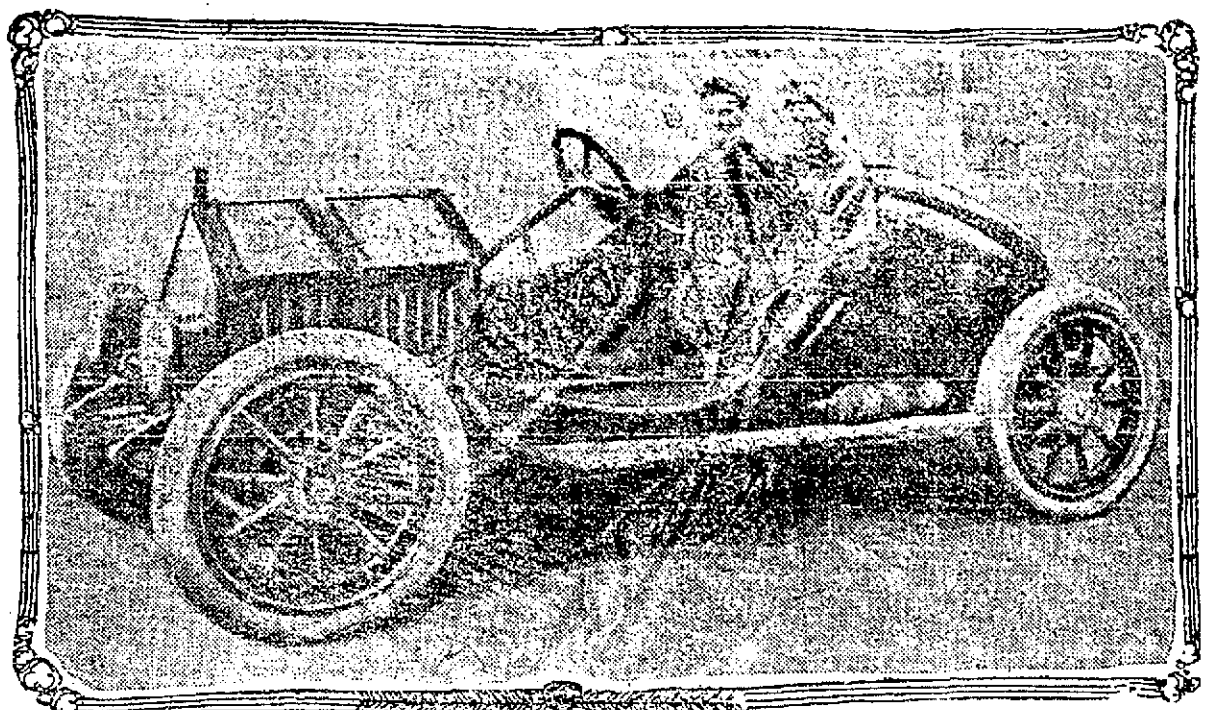

The exact spot where the firing took place is one of the mysteries, but it happened somewhere in the immediate neighborhood of the homes of Spivale and Cook, who are neighbors. Although many Burlingame commuters were startled from their slumbers by their sharp reports, and both Cook and Spivale admit they heard something of the kind, both men took occasion yesterday to affirm that they knew nothing of the occurrence.

"Spivale and Mrs. Cook and myself had dinner together at the Peninsula Hotel," said Cook. "We left about midnight and on the way home stopped at my house for a few minutes. Soon after arriving we heard some shots, and rushed to the porch, but could discover nothing. That is all there is to it."

Here is what Spivale says: "My wife and I heard some shots near the house about midnight. She became alarmed and telephoned the marshal, but so far as I know, he never came. That is all there is to it."

NEW RECORD IS ESTABLISHED 14 HOURS FROM LOS ANGELES

E. W. JOHNSON (AT WHEEL) AND H. SMITH IN THE HUPMOBILE CAR, IN WHICH THEY ESTABLISHED THE FOURTEEN-HOUR ROAD RECORD BETWEEN LOS ANGELES AND SAN FRANCISCO.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Los Angeles to San Francisco over the valley route in 14 hours flat in a little Hupmobile. That's the remarkable feat accomplished yesterday by E. W. Johnson, the Fresno representative of S. G. Chapman, the Hupmobile distributor.

The remarkable run of the clever car cuts out previous records by a wide margin and establishes a mark that will in all probability stand until the coming Los Angeles to San Francisco road race, when it is expected that high-powered racing cars and daredevil race drivers will set a mark for the intercity run that will stand forever.

When the record-breakers reached San Francisco yesterday they did not stop at the recognized finishing point, Guerrero and Market streets, but came on to the Chapman headquarters at McAllister and Folsom streets, and thus added several additional minutes to their running time before they were officially checked in.

While Chapman was never in doubt as to the ability of the Hupmobile to lower the record, still he was greatly surprised when Johnson rushed into his office and announced his arrival with "Hello! Here we are." This happened at exactly 6:30 o'clock and Chapman was not expecting him for at least an hour later.

The record-breaking Hupmobile left Los Angeles at 4:30 a. m., reached Bakersfield at 8:58, Tulare at 10:55, Fresno at 12:21, and San Francisco at 6:30.

Not once during the entire 500-mile grind was the Hupmobile held up by any mechanical trouble, a remarkable record, and one that will go far in further increasing the popularity of the low-priced car.

Three punctures added fifteen minutes to the running time between Los Angeles and Fresno, but from the Raisin City to San Francisco not one mishap was scored against the Risk tire equipment, which gave splendid service over some very rough stretches.

"The Hupmobile made its record entirely through consistent running and freedom from mechanical trouble," said Johnson this morning. "Our maximum speed never exceeded 57 miles an hour. In planning the run, I figured to drive an average of 40 miles an hour all through. Whenever I found I was a bit behind this average I opened the throttle up a little wider until I had made up the lost time."

HARD GOING.
"The hardest part of the trip was from Los Angeles to Bakersfield. Coming through the San Francisco canyon we forced forty-five streams. We simply shot right through them, and the thorough drenching that I and my mechanic, E. Smith, received made it extremely uncomfortable in the cold of the early morning."

"Sixty miles south of Bakersfield, we struck the Mojave desert and this was one of the toughest parts of the whole trip. The road was rough and the absence of fenders on my car gave us a perfect stream of gravel in our faces all the time. A very heavy wind was blowing, and besides cutting our faces with the dirt it retarded our speed considerably. For two hours we could not make over 45 miles an hour, and still stretched out on the floor almost in a reposing position, while I held down behind the wheel until I had the characteristic attitude of a man with his nose just showing above the steering post."

"The trip from Fresno to Los Banos, a distance of 70 miles, took us one hour and fifty minutes on account of a strong head wind. From Fresno to the top of Pacheco Pass, 32 miles, we made in exactly two hours and thirty minutes. From there we dropped into San Jose. Our time of one hour and thirty-eight minutes from San Jose to San Francisco was unexpectedly slow because of the topography of the route. We had to make an extended detour where they are working on the state highway in the vicinity of Burlingame, and the round-about nature of the temporary route compelled us to go at a very slow pace. Then we struck a mile or two of very 'chole' road just the other side of South City, which also served to hold down our record."

WONDERFUL SERVICE.
"I feel that this remarkable record was made possible only by the wonderful service rendered by the Hupmobile, which is a 1913 type known as Model '32.' The only trouble that we had was when a spark plug wire jarred itself loose under the severe strain. It was but the work of a few seconds to fix this and we were off again. I have never known a car of any kind to give such perfect service under such severe demands."

"I want also to pay compliment to the Risk tires, which were the equipment of the little machine. Our only trouble with these was three punctures in the rear casing, and with the Firestone tire equipment it was not a long or difficult task to make the changes. In short, it was a remarkable trip from every point of view."

The record-breaking Hupmobile will be on display in the Chapman headquarters for the next couple of days and will then be shipped to Fresno, where it will again be trimmed with its fenders, etc., and put back into the demonstration service. The little car, aside from a heavy coating of dust, appears none the worse after its hard trip.

This exhibition of the Hupmobile will doubtless make the car one of the entries in the Los Angeles-San Francisco road race that is scheduled for July 4.

AMES WILL CONTEST HAS PECULIAR FEATURES

ALBANY, Or., April 23.—A stubborn will contest arose in the county court yesterday between the heirs of Joseph Ames, deceased, and Mrs. Clara Hanchett, of Los Angeles, and son, John Hanchett.

Ames, an old bachelor, had made his home with the Hanchett family for several years before his death and had bequeathed some of his property to them, and upon the death of the testator a guardian was appointed who succeeded in having the deeds set aside.

After the death of Ames the heirs asked for the appointment of an administrator of the estate, which was valued at about $14,000. A will was later presented by Mrs. Hanchett for probate, giving all the property to Mrs. Hanchett and her son.

ORAL HYGIENE

A Vital Factor in the Health of the Community.

In these days of research into the problem of the prevention, rather than the cure of disease, the importance of Oral Hygiene as a factor in the health of the community is being more and more generally recognized and the necessity for daily guarding against the evils of infection through the mouth and throat by the persistent use of an antiseptic mouth wash or gargle is universally realized.

To the ignorance of the laws of Oral Hygiene can be traced more of the ill from which humanity suffers than to any other cause. As Dr. Osler says:

"You have one gospel to preach, and you have to preach it early and late. It is the gospel of cleanliness of the mouth, the teeth and the throat. These three things must be your text through life. Oral Hygiene, the hygiene of the mouth—there is not a single thing more important to the public in the whole range of Hygiene than that."

The formula of LISTOGEN, a remedial antiseptic of unusual merit, is particularly adapted to meet the requirements of Oral Hygiene. The well-known remedial effect of this mol. Menthol and Eucalyptol added to the equally well-known antiseptic value of Hydrogen Peroxide, insure in the use of LISTOGEN the extermination of germ life or decaying elements in the mouth, teeth or throat.

LISTOGEN is as harmless as it is efficacious, pleasant to taste and smell and will be found of immediate benefit in preventing serious consequences from sore throat or minor cuts, wounds, glands, etc., and for colds, sore throat, etc.

LISTOGEN is a habit which one will do well to acquire. 25 cts. 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle at the Ovi Drug Co. stores.

OAKLAND WOMAN HEIR TO ESTATE

Reads in Tribune of Leaving of Fortune; Will Ask for Money.

Finding herself one of the heirs to the $76,000,000 estate of Henry Garner, who died many years ago in St. Louis, Mrs. E. J. Clark, mother of eight children and residing at 835 Thirty-sixth street, Oakland, is this morning taking steps to communicate with other relatives who are preparing to enter the litigation which is necessary before the final settlement of the estate.

Mrs. Clark was Miss Rose Garner before her marriage and was born in California, her father, who was grandson of Henry Garner having come to this State in 1864. Reading in THE TRIBUNE of the search being made in San Bernardino by T. F. Gardner, a cattleman of Dodge City, Kansas, Mrs. Clark recalled the life of her father, who spent his early years in Missouri and discovered that she was one of the 50 relatives that is being sought.

Other relatives are thought to have been in Boise City and J. C. M. N. Garner of Santa Ana is another relative of Mrs. Clark who will have an interest in the estate.

In 1900 the St. Louis courts appraised the Garner property at $76,000,000 and it is known to have increased in value since that time. It was leased by Henry Garner for 99 years and the lease has expired, which restores the immense estate to the 50 heirs which are scattered through the country.

GOVERNOR HADLEY IS AGAINST THE RECALL

CHICAGO, April 23.—"This is a government of lawyers, and always has been," said former Governor Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri, in a speech here tonight at the annual banquet of the alumni of Northwestern University. Law School. "The profession of law has been more influential than all others combined and lawyers have been the dominant class." Mr. Hadley's speech was devoted largely to an attack on the recall of judges. "If judges may be recalled by popular vote, we would see more and more popular decisions instead of judicial ones," he said. "Laws and procedure may be improved, and this is constructive criticism. The recall is destructive and is a calamity."

TO VISIT IN EAST.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Miss Mona Francis, following her graduation from the Haight school, will leave in time for Chicago to finish her college course in just time. Miss Francis will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Maud Smith Francis, as far as Brent Rock, Mass., to the home of her uncle, John Freeman Beal, at Sea-side Place.

COUNTY FLORAL SOCIETY MEETS

Plans Exhibition in May and Invites Exhibitors and Public.

A meeting of the Alameda County Floral Society was held Monday night at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, there being a large attendance of flower lovers and a beautiful display of various blossoms from the gardens of members. These specimen exhibits have rendered the regular gatherings very attractive and instructive. An exceptionally beautiful display of roses was made by Mrs. A. Brann of San Lorenzo, who is the vice-president of the society.

Plans for the coming exhibition of the society in May were discussed at length and many of the details mapped out. It is hoped to secure the co-operation of many flower growers who are not members but who would be willing to exhibit their May flowers and thus assist in this pleasing advertising of the county. Membership is not an essential to exhibit and all who are willing to exhibit will be free to the public and which will be non-competitive in character. Professional gardeners and florists will be asked to make this show a success and if all expectations are realized the society will have reason to be proud of its first venture before the public.

In line with the educational plan of the organization a very interesting and enlightening lecture on gladioli was read by William A. Pryal of 101 Fifty-ninth street, Oakland, who has devoted many years of his life to the study and culture of the gladiolus. Mr. Pryal touched on the history of the bulbous plant, told of its wonderful development in the hands of specialists, described the nature of its growth and increase, and gave many valuable hints on its cultivation.

Residents of Alameda county who desire to assist in the first exhibition of the society about the middle of May should communicate with the secretary, J. M. Carroll, 5541 Diamond avenue, Oakland.

SERGEANT HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Sergeant John H. Long of the Tenth Company of recruits, stationed at Angel Island, tumbled overboard off Pacific street wharf at 4 o'clock this morning. The sergeant was on his way to Washington street pier, from which point the Angel Island boat leaves and he was walking along in the darkness when he fell into the water. He is a strong swimmer but had difficulty in finding a ladder with which to reach the wharf. He was exhausted when picked up and after treatment at the Harbor hospital was removed to the Presidio general hospital.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER IS GAY JOLLY PRISONER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—W. N. Ray, chief of the secret service of the customs department, Manila, arrived from the Orient yesterday with A. E. Windt, a former employee of the First National Bank of Pittsburgh, charged with embezzling funds three years ago. "I have allowed him the liberty of every port we visited since leaving Manila and he has made no effort to escape," said Ray. It was only a few days before the arrival of the Mongolia that others knew the happy, smiling passenger, who wore the most charming costume at the fancy dress ball, was indeed a prisoner. Windt said he would have no difficulty in clearing himself of the charges. He gained the sympathy of most women passengers, who believed his story of innocence.

Voters, Do Your Duty.

Hardly a word is heard on the streets regarding the coming municipal election. This argues an indifference that is not complimentary to the public spirit and civic pride of our citizens. Only a fourth of the qualified electors took the trouble to vote at the primary election and the stay-at-home vote promises to be equally large at the regular election unless the citizens wake up and do their duty.

Commissioners Baccus and Anderson are opposed by Socialists. With anything like a full vote polled no Socialist would have a chance of being elected. But anything may happen if three-fourths of the voters neglect to go to the polls. It would be very unfortunate if a Socialist should be elected because of the failure of citizens to do their duty. Nobody would regret the mischance more than the electors who did not take the trouble to vote. The way to make things go right is for every citizen to go to the polls and vote for the candidates the voter thinks best qualified for the office under the circumstances.

Messrs. Baccus and Anderson are not experiments. They are not unknown quantities or in sympathy with any scheme to reverse our municipal policy. They have acquitted themselves with distinct credit since they have been in office. They have justified their election and earned, by good conduct and zeal in the discharge of their official duties, endorsement and re-election.

A vast majority of the voters of Oakland approve of them and their work, and desire to see them retained in office; but it takes votes to elect. Wishes do not count unless they are deposited in the ballot box. Good citizenship cannot afford to shun the polls, else it may wake up to find that a vicious minority has taken control of the government. Apathy and indifference are not evidences of civic pride, nor are they the bases of good government. The citizen who does not vote does not count in the affairs of government. By neglecting his duty he reduces himself to a cipher.

No opportunity should be given for flukes and mischances in the coming election. Cast your votes for Baccus and Anderson, and good government will be assured for the next two years. Vote! Vote!! Vote!!! Don't forget it next time.

Apparently San Francisco is determined that Los Angeles shall not get ahead of her on any proposition. Los Angeles sprung a white slave sensation, and San Francisco immediately countered with a police graft scandal. Come to Oakland.

Obstruction has received a knockout blow in San Francisco. The people of that city have grown tired of agitators and demagogues who factiously oppose progress along constructive lines. Obstruction was threatening the success of the exposition and retarding the growth of the city. The voters have wisely decided to banish the horse cars from lower Market street and bring the Geary and Sutter street cars down to the ferry. That should have been done long ago, and would have been done but for the factious opposition of individuals who insisted that the city should sacrifice its own interest in an effort to injure the United Railroads. Public convenience counted for nothing with these individuals, and they succeeded in balking an understanding which paved the way to co-operation between the city and the street railway corporation to provide better transit facilities till the futility of the obstructive methods became painfully manifest to everybody. At last the people have decided to raise the embargo and go ahead.

The Progressives do not show up strong in the Congressional directory. Only one Senator declares himself a Progressive. In the lower house only six members record themselves as Progressive, although seven others style themselves "Progressive Republicans." Evidently the insurgents are beginning to realize the folly of completely cutting themselves off entirely from the Republican party.

Our Mexican neighbors are finding out that war is hell. This conclusion was forced on the garrison at Juarez last week when the soldiers awoke to find that somebody had made away with all the ammunition and the breech blocks of the cannons and machine guns. It is certainly a hell of a war when such accidents happen to a military force.

Clifford L. Snow, progressive Assemblyman, has been expelled from the New Hampshire Legislature for offering to sell his vote. Neither his name nor his politics is emblematic of political purity, and being on the side of the Lord at Armageddon did not save him.

The Belgian strike was unique in two respects. The strikers won completely and not a man was hurt. As a demonstration against certain political disabilities, it was all the more imposing in that it was peaceful and orderly. There was no destruction of property, no violence and no conflict with the police authorities. The victory is therefore as clean as it is complete.

Wages for Convicts.

Assemblyman Ellis has introduced a bill providing for the payment of convicts confined in the State prisons for work actually done, fixing the minimum wage at 10c a day. The bill has an element of merit in it, but it is based upon a false assumption. Several States provide for paying convicts employed in productive occupations of a small honorarium—not wages—as a reward for diligence and proficiency and as an encouragement to good behavior. But in the California prisons the convicts are not employed in productive labor, the jute mill at San Quentin excepted. Jute bags are manufactured at San Quentin, not for profit, but to provide the farmers with grain bags at the minimum of cost. Rock for macadamizing roads is crushed at Folsom, but there is no profit to the State in the business; the primary object being to encourage road building.

California now has the most expensive prison system in the world because the convicts are not employed in gainful pursuits. It is the settled policy of this State not to make money from the labor of convicts.

The Ellis bill, if it is correctly outlined in the press reports, would increase the cost of maintaining the prisons without giving the State any compensation in return. If convicts are to be paid for their labor they should be employed in productive pursuits yielding a profit sufficiently large to meet the wage expenditure. Anyway if convicts are to be paid for their labor their earnings should go to those dependent on them for support.

STIRRING UP A HORNET'S NEST

—BALTIMORE AMERICAN.

Avert the Menace of Railway Strikes.

It is to be hoped Congress will amend the Erdman arbitration act at a reasonably early date. The Erdman act has utterly failed to accomplish the end it was intended to serve, and the need of some better digested measure that will avert railway strikes becomes more pressing with time.

Under existing conditions a general tie up of railway traffic is likely to occur at any time. A paralysis of our transportation system would be disastrous. It is impossible to estimate what the consequences would be. Every class in every section would feel the effects. Grave disorders and much suffering would inevitably result.

What is wanted is a substitute for the Erdman act providing for a voluntary form of arbitration so little open to valid objection as to deprive disputants of all reasonable excuse for refusing to arbitrate under the law. The menace of strikes must be averted, and the only way to avert it is by providing a way for railway companies and their employees to meet and thresh out their differences and reach an understanding in accordance with settled principles of justice and supported by the authority of law. Congress alone has the power to provide a method of adjustment that will be conclusive and final.

The great strike in Belgium emphasizes the necessity for speedy action. We cannot afford to have the business of the whole country exposed to the peril of a general strike on the railroads. It is the duty of Congress, and a duty of the first importance, to legislate against a menace which threatens the peace of the land as well as commercial and industrial security. There is no dynamite in the question if Congress will only deal with it in the right spirit, and not try to settle disputes which may hereafter arise in favor of one side or the other before the issue is joined and the evidence is heard. The machinery for effecting fair settlements on an equitable basis is what the country needs, and that is precisely what the Railway Business Association is trying to secure. It is a move in the direction of justice and peace, and therefore should be aided by every thoughtful, fair-minded and patriotic citizen.

TRIUMPH IN TRANSLATING

A correspondent writes from the University of Wisconsin:

The following letter, received by the college of agriculture at the University of Wisconsin, may interest your readers. Not unnaturally, it was at first regarded as having been written in some strange European dialect and was passed on to my polyglot colleague, Professor Prokosh, who takes the writer to be a Czech living among German-American farmers. I transcribe literally:

Jupis Sintni lidbet som kajn sit cum train tobaku sit Cable sit Angens sit tomatis sit bit sit persia sit kloher sit swit Corn sit Begi sit Flat tenap sit Cjnn Cumbriat sit. Jer (?) Trulli

Black River Falls, R 7 Vias.

The translation offers only slight difficulties as soon as one has grasped the fact that the letter is supposed to be English translated by means of European vowels.

You please send me a little bit some kinds seed can try (I e, for instance, perhaps) tobacco seed, cabbage seed, onion seed, tomato seed, beet seed.

paranip seed, clover seed, sweet corn seed, (rais) bean seed, pea turnip seed, cucumber seed. Yours (the only word illegibly written, perhaps indicating, as Professor Prokosh suggests, that in this case he was willing to admit a little uncertainty about his English) truly, Phonetically interesting are "train" and "jun," in both of which the "n" represents his attempt to convey the strong nasal of the American pronunciation, further, "lid," as it is frequently spoken in these parts: "bet for bit, because our 'n' is open and 'bet' for 'beet' also an unfamiliar sound to him.—New York Post.

VICIOUS

Gilbert Parker, the English author, tells of an English gentleman who recently came to this country to visit some friends in California. "In common with most travelers he supposed game was plentiful everywhere in that state, so he carried with him the necessary guns and ammunition."

"As his train neared San Bernardino—just before making the mountain climb—there was a delay. Several hours passed, and still the train remained stationary: our traveler friend grew restless and sought the porter of the Pullman car to ascertain the cause of the delay.

"It seems that in mounting the grade a freight train had broken apart, the rear portion having descended the grade and blocked the track. The porter informed him of the accident to the Englishman and said: 'There is a caboose on the track.' 'Immediately the hunter instinct was awakened. Hastening to his berth, he procured his gun and started for the door, saying: 'Show it to me! Show it to me!' '—Hearst's Magazine.

Both Conditions Met

The Woman with a small amount of money who has no technical knowledge of finances.

I have a small amount of money. I don't want to lose it. I want absolute security in any investment that I might make.

I don't know anything about law or lawyers. I don't know anything about real estate and its value.

I don't want to worry about the collection of interest and principal. I haven't any particular friend on whose judgment I can rely.

I don't want to take anyone's word about the security. I want to know—see it myself.

I want security as good as my cash—cash-security.

The Man with $100,000 to invest and who has technical knowledge of finances

I know finances. I know what money is worth. I know what forms of investments are hazardous, and I know which are safe. I know the trouble of collecting principal and interest from unreliable investments.

But I haven't the time nor the inclination to look up the law; to know about real estate values; to worry about the details of collection; to keep books and to know when the interest is due and should be paid.

After I make my decision I don't want to worry or have the trouble of looking after my investment.

Both these conditions are met by the Western Mortgage & Guaranty Company's guaranteed first mortgage loans. The cash capital security of $463,100 satisfies either one as to the security of their interest and principal and it is a guarantee against any loss, worry or trouble in collecting the interest and principal.

It doesn't make any difference whether you have a small amount of money or a large amount. You have here a source of investment on which you can absolutely rely, with adequate interest.

ORATORY VS. FACTS IN VICE DEBATE

Dr. Aked Leads Speakers for Abatement; Chief Petersen for Segregation.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Debate on the question as to whether the suppression of the so-called segregated district, or of any form of regulation of vice, would minimize the social evil was held before members of the Economic club of San Francisco and their guests at the close of the banquet held in the rooms of the San Francisco Commercial club last night. Prominent men were the debaters, the occasion marking an exhaustive discussion of the subject from all phases by the experts on both sides.

The Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked, pastor of the First Congregational church of San Francisco, Judge Clayton Herrington of the United States Federal Court, and Dr. J. C. Spencer of San Francisco upheld the proposition that vice would be minimized by all efforts at utter suppression and the abandonment of the plan of regulation. Chief Walter J. Petersen of Oakland, Dr. Julius Rosenstern of the San Francisco Municipal Clinic and Police Commissioner Max Kuhl defended the system of segregation.

At the close of the discussion it was the general consensus of opinion that the facts and figures, and authorities and the line of argument presented by the defendants of segregation had the best of the argument, although the flow of oratory had been of a splendidly convincing nature on the opposite side.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mme D'Amico.

"A woman feels like crying when she finds her comb full of hair. Falling hair, and faded, dull and brittle hair means that the scalp is harboring a parasite that destroys hair. Mother's Shampoo removes these parasites and puts the scalp in clean, wholesome and healthy condition, so that the hair will grow luxuriantly.

"Eyes may sparkle like diamonds, or be the color of precious gems, but if the eye-lashes and brows are thin and straggly, their appearance will not be pleasing. Plain pyroxin massages into the roots of the brows and lashes will cause them to grow long, even, silken and darker in color.

"Dandruff is so popular as a superficial hair remover because it uses does not discolor or roughen the skin. To remove hair on the face or forehead cover the surface for a minute or two with a little vasoline, then apply the dandruff and water. When the paste is removed the hairs will be gone.

"Thin necks, scrawny shoulders and undeveloped busts are greatly improved by the famous Vaseline hair treatment. Make a syrup of 1/4 cupful sugar and a pint of water, then add a ounce of gallol. Take two teaspoonfuls before each meal.

"Headaches, pains in back or joints, rheumatism, sore muscles and other aches yield to Mother's Salve, which penetrates the pores and relieves almost instantly.

"Every woman is responsible for her complexion, and a good complexion is woman's greatest charm. To correct facial blemishes, remove muddy spots and make the skin fresh, fair and lovely, gently massage the face, neck and arms each morning with lotion made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel."

HOYLE EXONERATED OF ALL CHARGES OF CRUELTY

Assembly Prison Committee Clears Warden and Subordinates.

Punishment Inflicted at San Quentin Declared to Be Mild.

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Exonerating Warden Hoyle and his subordinates, except two guards whose discharge is predicted, of all charges of cruelty, pronouncing the food "love-abundant and of excellent quality," and making no recommendations for the abandonment of the straight jacket, the Assembly special prison investigating committee has handed in its report on San Quentin penitentiary.

The report was signed by all of the five members, Assemblymen Ellis, chairman, Farwell, T. D. Johnston, McCarthy and Ryan. After the report had been accepted by the Assembly, Johnston rose with a book and bitterly attacked the editor of a San Francisco paper, whom he accused of having, through his publication, attempted to influence the committee in its findings.

Assemblyman Ryan of San Francisco, pointed out that Johnston was speaking in his personal opinion, and not that of the committee.

CRUELTY CHARGED.

The investigation was made under authority of a resolution introduced by Assemblyman H. W. Brown, calling for a special inquiry into the use of the straight jacket and other forms of cruel and unusual punishment. Concerning this, the report says:

"Within the past two years we find that no prisoner has been punished in the jacket in any unreasonable or cruel manner, but that the greatest caution always is exercised when this particular punishment has been applied."

The committee also reported that J. B. McNamara had not been unduly or unusually punished, as charged by labor leaders in San Francisco.

The report included an explanation by Farwell of his stand concerning the testimony of Dr. E. E. Duncan, a former prisoner who testified "that the straight jacket never was used at San Quentin." Farwell stated that Duncan's testimony gave him great prejudice against Warden Hoyle until he had conducted his investigation, when he decided that Duncan could "consider himself the luckiest man out of prison in that he secured the pardon he did."

EXCUSE "BREAD RIOT."

The so-called "bread riot" at San Quentin last June, the committee finds were not a legitimate outcry against bad food but the result of a "conspiracy by not more than 100 hardened and desperate criminals for the sole and only purpose of obtaining the prison officials in the minds of the people of the state."

Summing up the general government of the prison, the committee reported:

"The government and discipline of the prison is of the very best. Warden Hoyle is held in the highest esteem and confidence by the very large proportion of the prison population; he mingles freely and almost daily with the prisoners, is easily approachable by every prisoner, and converses with him and conducts himself at all times with extraordinary benevolence and kindness toward the prisoners. If fault is to be found with Warden Hoyle it is that he is altogether too merciful and kind-hearted to maintain the best prison discipline as many prisoners take advantage of his abundance of human sympathy to the detriment of proper order."

The first of the committee's conclusions is that San Quentin is overcrowded, and that this condition is demoralizing to the inmates, physically, morally and mentally, but that this condition will in a few weeks be relieved by the occupancy of a modern and up-to-date cell building.

WOULD SEGREGATE PRISONERS.

"Our committee very earnestly recommends that the state of California should segregate the worst of those guilty of murder in the first degree high by robbery accompanied by means of or threats of great bodily harm, or other shocking crimes should ever be compelled to mingle with hardened criminals."

The report continues:

"Men comprising not more than 20 per cent of the prison population are responsible for the perplexing and heart-breaking difficulties and problems of the prison and your committee believes that this class, spurred on perhaps by a few more clever criminals, is now responsible for the great outcry of wrongs and cruelties that are alleged to have been perpetrated against the prisoners at San Quentin."

"That this class of prisoners are fed, clothed and cared for better here than they ever were outside the prison and that they yet constantly protest and abuse the management is the substance of much of the testimony on this point taken."

"The cell room in San Quentin is totally inadequate to accommodate the population and three or four persons are necessarily crowded in one small cell intended to accommodate only one. This overcrowding in a large degree contributes to the increase and prevalence of unnatural crimes to which can be charged much of the discipline-destroying conditions that exist in San Quentin today."

RANDOLPH PRAISED.

Of Captain Randolph the report says: "Before going to San Quentin your committee heard much of the alleged brutality and wolfishness of Captain Randolph. Therefore, we went to San Quentin with considerable prejudice against him, but upon the evidence and the reliable testimony shows that at least for the past two years every person committed to San Quentin whether rich or poor, learned or unlearned, has been treated alike by Captain Randolph. Captain Randolph is a very quiet man, a stern disciplinarian. He is neither harsh nor unkind but is strong, commanding and just to all."

"Much testimony was taken concerning the treatment of prisoners in the 'wash and blind' by the guards. At least two or three of the prisoners were punished much more severely than their infractions of rules would justify. The three guards all testified that their explicit instructions were that no corporal punishment should be administered without the sanction and order of Hoyle or Randolph. These orders were violated by Guards Irwin and Grubb on two or three occasions, we believe. We are agreed, however, that such acts were without the knowledge of either Warden Hoyle or Captain Randolph."

Of special punishments the report says, "Confinement in the present damp dungeon for any length of any time must of necessity be injurious to health, but punishment in the dungeon as well as the straight jacket has been reduced almost to the minimum during the past two years."

TRAINED TIGERS AND LIONS PERFORM IN SAME ARENA

MARGARET RECARDO, WHOSE DARING IS ONE OF THE FEATURES OF SELLS-FOTO CIRCUS, COMING NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

Although animal acts of various kinds have for many years been features of traveling tented organizations, still they have up to date never reached such a state of perfection that tigers and lions would perform in the same arena together.

This season the Sells-Foto circus, which comes here on Monday and Tuesday next, April 28-29, offers this marvelous feat of training as one of the features of their program.

Margaret and Captain Dutch Recardo are the names of the trainers who have succeeded in accomplishing this novel departure. They appear in a steel arena, together with six African lions and three Malay tigers, which during the past winter they have trained to perform as one family. It must not be understood that these animals are by any means in the kindergarten stage because they have passed that long ago. Their training is absolutely completed so much so indeed that they mount pedestals forming heroic groups, balance on rolling balls, see-saw, slide bicycles, jump through hoops of fire and mount galloping horses.

The remarkable part of the whole entertainment is the Recardos enter the cage carrying no weapon or fire arm of any kind. The education of these fierce animals was accomplished with no other persuader than an ordinary ugly whip. Their methods differing from all the other great trainers who have helped to make the history of the world's best menageries. Perhaps it is that the Recardos possess some strange and magic power over dumb animals, but be that as it may, the exhibition given by them is one which has never been equaled and probably never will.

LATE NEWS FROM RICHMOND

THREE MEN SAVED FROM DROWNING SEEKS JUDGESHIP

Santa Fe Tug Rescues Richmond Citizens From Waters of the Bay.

RICHMOND, April 23.—J. D. Murphy, D. M. Quill and W. O. Williams were saved from a watery grave last evening by the tug Santa Fe tug off the long wharf at Ferry Point here, after a narrow escape from death. Their rowboat capsized in the rough waves, and after struggling in the water for some time their cries attracted attention of men at work on the wharf, who gave the alarm. The tug, which had steam up, and was about to start on a trip to the Contra Costa county, San Francisco, put off to the rescue. The Thompson Bridge Company is building wharf extensions for the Santa Fe, and the three men were engaged in towing logs to the point of construction. Toward evening a high wind came up and turned boat, throwing them out. They were unable to make headway in the rough sea, and would have perished had it not been for the quick and sure work of the wharf men and the tug. All were exhausted when pulled out of the bay, but suffered no greater damage.

BANK OF RICHMOND ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

RICHMOND, April 23.—At the regular meeting of the directors of the Bank of Richmond yesterday the same officers were re-elected, John Nichol being president, W. K. Cole, vice-president, W. Staley, cashier, and Harry Ellis, treasurer. C. S. Downing of Berkeley was added to the board of directors.

The total resources of the bank have increased from $297,127.50 to $446,610.28, showing an increase of resources of $149,482.78. The increase in the net earnings over the earnings of the previous year being $2258.60, or a gain of 7 per cent on the capital stock of $30,000, which was the work of the wharf men and the tug. All were exhausted when pulled out of the bay, but suffered no greater damage.

RICHMOND'S NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO DANCE

RICHMOND, April 23.—The Native Daughters of the Golden West of this city are making plans for a dance to be given at the East Shore Park Pavilion on Friday evening, May 2. This will be the eighth annual ball given by the ladies, and it promises to be a greater success than ever before. A large number of members have been appointed by Mrs. R. F. Paasch, president of the making, and they are busy at the work preparing for the event. The Park orchestra has been secured to furnish the music during the evening.

F. W. SMITH'S ILLNESS PROVES SCARLET FEVER

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Frank W. Smith, 19-year-old son of Assemblyman Frank M. Smith of Oakland, employed in the assembly hall filling room, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday night, and yesterday the attending physicians diagnosed the case as scarlet fever.

Mrs. Smith arrived yesterday from Oakland to care for her son. She was expected to arrive with him. It is expected that by the end of this week it will be possible to move him to his home in Oakland.

VICE PROBLEM ONE 'OF MEN, NOT WOMEN'

The Philadelphia Commission Urges Enforcement of Present Laws.

Parks and Dance Halls Are Branded Breeding Places of Turpitude.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Declaring that the "problem is more of man than of woman," and that "the strongest support for the idea that prostitution roots in low wages is found in a study of the annual wage incomes of men rather than statistics of the weekly wages of girls," the vice commission appointed nearly a year ago by Mayor Blankenburg, in its report made public last night, urges the enforcement of the present laws and the enactment of other legislation to provide for the punishment of all those who benefit by commercializing vice.

The commission, which is composed of 21 prominent men and women, including clergymen, physicians, lawyers, heads of reformatory institutions and settlement workers, appends numerous statistics secured by their investigators to the report.

It says that the "vice problem is one of the most serious of the present day, and that it is one which has never been equaled and probably never will."

URGES COMMISSION.

The report urges the appointment of a permanent commission to utilize the information obtained and make effective the recommendations of the commission, which include the care and education of children, the establishment of social service departments in stores, manufacturing establishments and other places having a large number of employees, and the strict supervision of places of amusement and oppose the policy of segregation.

PUBLIC PARKS, DANCE HALLS, MOVING PICTURE SHOWS AND OTHER AMUSEMENT CENTERS ARE BRANDED PLACES OF VICE, THE COMMISSION DECLARES.

Commenting upon statistics obtained showing that out of 258 women questioned by one investigator, 125 entered the life because of inadequate support, 44 because of lack of recreation and 83 because of lack of supervision and demoralizing surroundings.

VALUE OF HONOR.

The report says "that so large a proportion of them deliberately sold their virtue at the start because of inadequate wages was utterly disabuse. A normal woman values her honor as she does her life, and it casts an unwarranted aspersions on the thousands of young women who fill our factories, shops and department stores, even to suggest that their virtue is dependent upon their pay. The direct source of this sin is lack of self-restraint, due largely to improper home surroundings and early training."

In declaring that "the strongest support for the idea that prostitution roots in low wages is found in a study of the annual wage incomes of men rather than statistics of the weekly wage of young girls," the commission says, "We cannot too strongly urge our conviction that prostitution is chiefly a family and community, not an individual, responsibility. Large groups of men in Philadelphia earn annually a wage about $300 a year, the amount estimated as a living wage in this city for the family of five. Such a family status insures deterioration physically and socially for the individual and for the family as a unit social group. Exceptions to this truth are negligible."

BLAME WEAK MINDS.

BOSTON, April 23.—Many of the "working girls who go wrong, and at least 50 per cent of the men and women sentenced to prison and other criminal institutions are feeble-minded, according to Dr. Walter E. Fernald, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Feeble Minded at Waverly, who addressed a meeting at the City Club last night.

Dr. Fernald said that only 2000 of the 12,000 feeble-minded persons in Massachusetts are under restraint. "Unless the state extends its system of restraint and segregation to the afflicted persons the increase of criminals and the girls who go wrong will be appalling," he declared.

"Investigations by the vice commissions show that from 25 to 40 per cent of the girls who fall to protect themselves are feeble-minded. It is really not so much a question of low wages, the commission found, as it is that the girls have no resistance power."

HOLPH JUNIOR INVOKES DADDY'S OFFICIAL PULL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The following communication reached Mayor Rolph yesterday:

Dear Sir: Would you help us find a place to play baseball? The policemen chase us out of all the lots. Respectfully, JAMES ROLPH JR. TEAM.

Per James Rolph III. Appended to the communication was the list of the members of the team, as follows:

Earl Rogers, James Rolph III, Arthur Gear, Edward McPhee, Chester McPhee, Leland Prior, Harold Gill, Cecil Waymiller, Clarence Huthelinson.

The mayor kindly referred the communication to the chief of police.

RATIONS ISSUED FOR MANY FLOOD SUFFERERS

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 23.—One hundred thousand rations were issued yesterday by Captain W. B. Banker, U. S. A., for approximately 10,000 persons who are expected to suffer at various points along the Mississippi and its tributaries as a result of the breaking Monday of the Woodlawn levee.

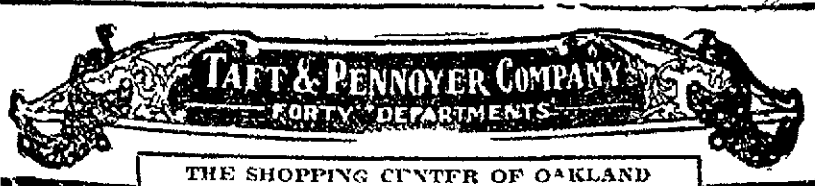

Vicksburg will be the site of a relief and refugee camp. Governor Brewer has ordered state guard tents sent here for that purpose.

EXCEPTIONAL SALE OF WAISTS 95c

This is an offer that we are rarely enabled to make. We refer to TWENTY DOZEN bright, new, fresh Summer Shirts or Waists. The regular value is $1.25 the garment, but we have been enabled to buy them at a price which makes possible the offer of 95 CENTS EACH.

STYLE—Plain tailored effects with high collar, long sleeve and turn-back cuff. The waist is laced through eyelets for quite a distance down the front, enabling one to make a low neck effect if desired. A very few of them are plain button fronts.

MATERIALS—Washable Percale, Madras, fancy white lawn and flannel.

COLORS—Principally white. There are, however, a number of dainty stripes and dots. The flannels are grey with some grey stripe effects among them. Ribbon laces at the throat add pleasing touches of color to the white ones. These were made to sell at $1.25 at the very least.

OUR PRICE THURSDAY AND WHILE THEY LAST, 95¢ EACH.

Special Sale of Stencil Sets

Now is the time to give thought to the decoration of the country home. No one realizes how much can be done with a stencil set. Pillows for porches and rooms may be stenciled, walls decorated, table covers, curtains, scarfs and any number of articles may be tastefully embellished with the aid of one of our complete stencil sets.

Perhaps the greatest inducement toward a purchase of one of these sets is the attractive price at which we offer them. Our connection with one of the largest concerns of the East enabled us to secure these at a price at which they could not even be manufactured. Changes in his plant necessitated an early removal of his stocks. Hence the price at which we offer them.

REGULAR $1.25 SETS AT 50¢.

REGULAR $1.50 SETS AT 75¢.

We also show a great many separate stencils besides those included in the sets at proportionately low prices.

WE DEMONSTRATE these sets as to their application and uses commencing Thursday.

FRAM MAY CROSS IN PANAMA CANAL

Ship of Explorer Amundsen Is Expected to Pass Through "Big Ditch."

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Colonel Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, in a report to the War Department yesterday expressed the hope he would pass a ship through the canal before the close of the present year.

The statement came in response to an inquiry from Secretary Garrison as to whether Captain Roald Amundsen, the explorer, could be allowed to take his ship Fram through the canal when he starts for the Antarctic regions next winter.

Colonel Goethals said: "The opening of the Panama canal for the passage of vessels always has been predicted on the question of sides and the completion of the lock gate."

"The present schedule contemplates admitting the water into Culebra cut early in October and the completion of one flight of locks at either end of the

Remember the Dentist Who Never Hurts

If you had to have a tooth amputated and there was only one surgeon in your city who could perform the operation painlessly, would you let that surgeon do the work or would you go to one who would amputate your tooth and get a man to sit on your head while he was cutting and sawing?

It is ridiculous to suppose that you would choose the latter. Yet you show no better judgment in patronizing a dentist who makes you suffer tortures while fixing your teeth.

Since the perfection of my Terythra method it is as unnecessary as one to endure pain in the dental chair as it is to suffer while undergoing surgical operation. Surgery was made painless long ago, but I am the first person who succeeded in making dentistry painless.

I do not give my patients gas, nor administer poisons of any kind. Terythra is perfectly harmless, yet thoroughly effective in every case. You can sit in my chair and watch every move I make, all the while enjoying complete freedom from pain. I guarantee to fix them, regardless of what has to be done to them, without causing you one bit of discomfort.

My Rex Alveolar method of restoring teeth without plates is a boon to people who have lost a few or nearly all of their teeth. Alveolar teeth are put in the jaws to stay, just like real teeth. There are no flimsy plates to wobble around in the mouth and no bridgework to become clogged with food. You don't have to worry about what you eat, because you can chew any food with alveolar teeth as easily as you could with real teeth. This work is not painful and calls for no surgery, no cutting or boring into the gums. Only two sound teeth are necessary to build from. If you have that many left in either jaw, you don't need a plate.

To like to give you a personal explanation of my methods and show you exactly what I can do for you. Call in and see me at once. Consultation is free, and you won't be under obligations to have any work done until you are ready. Examination and estimate free to everyone.

Hours: 8:30 to 5:30; Sundays, 10 to 12

Those who cannot call should write for the free book explaining my Terythra and Alveolar methods.

WOMAN SUES FOR SHARE IN ESTATE

Lived as Common Law Wife With Artist, Is the Contention.

Mrs. Bertha Huesemann, alleging that she was the common law wife of the late Jules D. Dray, a well known fruit-valet artist, is suing Max Koenig, executor of the estate for $15,470, which she claims is due her as sums paid to Dray during five years that they lived together as man and wife.

As a witness in the case which is being heard before Superior Judge Donahue, Mrs. Huesemann told the story of her relations with the artist which dated from the time he met her in France and brought her to this country. The first time they landed, she said, the immigration authorities refused to let them remain, so they returned to England and then sailed from London as man and wife. They took quarters in San Francisco and it was during that time that the woman declares she earned from $100 to $125 per week. This money she turned over to Dray in exchange for his services. Since his death she has decided that she wants it back again and it is a matter the jury will be asked to decide.

GRACE CHURCH LADIES ARRANGE FOR BAZAAR

The ladies of Grace Methodist Church, Thirty-fourth and Market streets, have arranged a bazaar and supper to be given tomorrow at the church. A large assortment of needlework will be disposed of and the proceeds will go to pay a subscription recently made on the personnel fund. The dinner will be from 8 to 9 o'clock in the evening. Those having the affair in charge are: Mrs. W. N. Russell, Mrs. R. E. Veall, Mrs. Mary J. Fuller, Mrs. H. E. Brittingham, Mrs. C. D. Moore, Mrs. E. J. Bradner, Mrs. Clara Maddocks and Mrs. Lena Watkins.

BISHOP HANNA HONORED GUEST AT RECEPTION

Eminent Catholics of Priesthood and Laity Greet Archbishop's New Assistant

Right Rev. Edward J. Hanna, recently appointed auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese of San Francisco, was welcomed into the Catholic parishes on this side of the bay at a great gathering last night in Hotel Oakland. The ballroom of the hotel was crowded to the doors with an eager throng of men and women anxious to pay their respects to the high priest of the Catholic church.

Bishop Hanna won the hearts of his people in the brief time that he was among them. Many present had not had an opportunity to greet him during the short time that he has been in San Francisco as assistant to Archbishop Riordan. The meeting in Oakland was planned in order that the several parishes and the people at large might be given equal precedence in the bishop's affairs, and prominent members of the laity mingled in the brilliant yet earnest assemblage. Simplicity marked the affair but there was a warmth of feeling that impressed itself upon everyone addressing the speakers and into the hearts of the audience.

Members of the reception committee met Bishop Hanna in his suite at the hotel and conducted him to the ballroom. At the east end of the room a banquet had been placed, while the remainder was occupied by chairs for the audience.

ADDRESSES AUDIENCE

From the moment Bishop Hanna stepped into the room those present knew that there was a treat in store for them, and that they were to hear from a man among men. His pleasant smile and pleasing demeanor held the attention of those about him and his message left the hearers with more than passing food for thought.

On behalf of the clergy, Rev. P. C. York, D. D., of St. Anthony's parish in Oakland, one of the most prominent churchmen in the west, greeted Bishop Hanna.

"I feel a certain kind of sympathy with the Texas politician who said on greeting his audience, 'What are we all here for?' spoke Father York to the audience. 'But we are all here to be here, and although my being called upon was rather a sudden announcement.'

Father York remarked that in the absence of Father Thomas McSweeney of St. Francis de Sales parish, he was the next oldest member of the priesthood on this side of the bay.

"To you, Bishop Hanna, I would say that the Catholics of Oakland pledge you their support, their loyalty and their assistance in every way. There is one thing, however, that we must say, and that is that Archbishop Riordan has given the highest uplift to the Catholic societies in this archdiocese. The local unit of this great Catholic society is the parish.

"All our modern methods of charity, social service and rescue work and social reform are unphilosophical. We have no need to go outside of this great church to look for principles. This institution was not founded yesterday. Its methods have been in service for nearly 2000 years and they have survived. So let us not go on the outside but rather stick to the old ways and not be tossed about on every restless sea."

SPEAKS FOR LAITY

J. J. McDonald, on behalf of the laity, expressed regret for the absence of Archbishop Riordan. To Bishop Hanna he said a few words of welcome.

"You will probably notice that there is a considerable portion of the laity scattered about Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley," he said. "You will find them willing to help you and whenever you call there will be a certain response."

Bishop Hanna was then introduced formally to the audience. He greeted with a hearty applause when H. J. Quinn, chairman of the general committee, spoke the words of introduction.

"Kind friends of Oakland, are you not afraid that you will spoil a new bishop? Praise and adulation are very dear to the human heart. When very dear to the human heart, it is said. When he does, his greatness comes to an end.

"Let me tell you, I am grateful from my heart for this expression towards one who is a stranger within our borders. I hope that in these surroundings I may grow really great—great as is your wonderful state and the hearts of your men and women. In building up the empire of Christ, we have the right to represent the Catholic diocese of San Francisco. As I look about me I can help but feel the contrast in the scene that must have greeted the first archbishop when he came to the sand hills of San Francisco.

"We gathered here tonight as representing the Catholic diocese of San Francisco. As I look about me I can help but feel the contrast in the scene that must have greeted the first archbishop when he came to the sand hills of San Francisco.

"We were the country. In those days the priests represented all the power the Catholics then maintained. Today the power is represented in the people. We are among the poor in this world's goods, but we are no longer quivering power—poor, but we are today something that men must reckon with. The priest can no longer do as he did in those old days. All his power must be turned toward teaching his ideals and a great deal of that power that must be fought of must be fought by you—the laity of this great diocese and of this great country."

"You have a rare opportunity, and believe me, it will be impossible for me to feel that the world is shifting. The world is thinking more and more of us because it sees in us that there is something that cannot be overpowered. What after all are the things that are threatening the foundations of our social organization? If you are imbued with the spirit of the Catholic church you have the answer. You know that in the traditional teachings of the Catholic church the relations of master and man are in a downward scale. It is a rule that all social service and after all social service is all we know.

TO POSTPONE TRIAL OF WESTERN FUEL COMPANY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Owing to the illness of Attorney McCutcheon of the firm of McCutcheon, Olney and Knight, counsel for John L. Howard of Oakland, and the other officials of the Western Fuel Company, the conspiracy charges against the defendant, will not be tried on April 23. That trial had been set for that date by Attorney Warren Olney, who was called by District Attorney John L. McNab today and stated that it would be impossible to proceed at that time. The matter has yet to be brought before the court for a formal continuance but it is understood that this will not be opposed.

BURGLAR HIDES IN A. SUTRO, JR.'S APARTMENT

Steals Three Suits After the Young Man Departs in Hunting Clothes.

Oakland Police Capture Offender, Who Admits 50 Local Burglaries.

Trembling with fear behind the door of a clothes closet in the apartments of Adolph Sutro Jr., son of a former mayor of San Francisco, Max Morris, declared by the police to be one of the cleverest apartment house burglars captured in California, listened to the young man debating with himself as to whether he should take some ducks he had just shot to a friend immediately or whether he should change his clothes first. Morris had entered the young man's rooms in the Haywood apartments in Berkeley to commit burglary, and if Sutro decided that he should change his clothes first, it meant that the thief would be discovered.

"I'll just take these right down to her," Sutro muttered to himself. "She's very fond of game. Shall I change my clothes well—I guess I'll go right down this way."

Morris breathed a sigh of relief, and after waiting to give Sutro a good start, he left his hiding place and stole three high priced suits of clothes.

Morris was captured today by the Oakland police at Sixth and Washington streets, after he had attempted to pawn several stolen garments. The arrest was made as a result of the work of Inspectors James Drew, Willis Quigley and Charles F. McCarthy and Patrolman Barker. Morris, whose the evidence of his connection with half a dozen Oakland burglaries was shown him, broke down and confessed the remainder. When arrested, he had in his possession stolen suitcases containing four suits of clothes. Morris confessed that he had committed over 50 burglaries in San Francisco, and that he had operated in apartments in this city, Berkeley, Vallejo, Stockton, San Mateo and other cities.

Two charges of burglary were lodged against the room thief today and his record is being investigated by Identification Expert Harry Caldwell. The record of his confessed burglaries is as follows:

- March 5, entered the home of George Faust, 2229 East Twentieth street, and stole two suits of clothes belonging to Faust and a suit of clothes and a gold watch from the rooms of Joseph Bentel in the same dwelling.
- March 14, entered the home of J. J. Palmer, 118 Twelfth street, and stole a gladiator bag and a suit of clothes.
- March 15, entered the rooms of W. Leeper in the Haller house, Twenty-second and San Pablo avenue and stole a suit of clothes.
- March 16, entered the rooms of Charles Schultz, 1115 Jefferson street, and stole a gold watch, two gold chains, a camera, two suits of clothes, a pair of shoes and a suitcase.
- March 18, entered the home of A. B. Munter, 1419 Twenty-third street, and stole three suits of clothes and some postal savings bank certificates.
- March 20, entered apartments of Adolph Sutro Jr., son of the former mayor of San Francisco, in the Haywood apartments, Berkeley, and stole three suits of clothes.
- Admitted thefts in the Eva apartments, Thirteenth and Clay and in the Ohio apartments, Eighteenth and Telegraph.
- Admitted over 50 burglaries in San Francisco and burglaries in San Mateo, Vallejo, Stockton and other cities.
- March 20, entered the Haywood apartment and stole a suit of clothes from the room of A. E. Zeus.
- March 20, entered the apartment of Al Zinner, 2197 Center street, Berkeley, and stole a watch and a revolver.

WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE; SPOUSE STINGY, SHE SAYS

Chauncey S. Burr was so peevish that he refused to furnish his home comfortably and he made his wife account for every cent she expended, according to court, but it is understood that she would frequently quarrel because she wanted to light the gas stove to keep warm. On one occasion she said that he became abusive when she could not account for 25 cents that she had expended for her account.

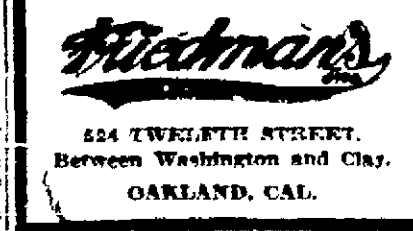

On his cross complaint charging desertion, John Reburn was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Alma Reburn.

BURGLARS PLEAD GUILTY IN COURT

Three Members of Spooning-Shea Gang to Be Sentenced Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Considerable surprise was caused in Superior Court this morning when Maud Shea, Patrick Shea and Bert Silberg, three of the four members of the Spooning-Shea gang, captured in the midst of thousands of dollars worth of stolen silver at a Stanyan street hotel, pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary preferred against them. The other member of the band, Jessie Clifton, is at the city and county hospital suffering from the effects of an attempt to perform an unlawful operation. She was unable to appear in court, but it is understood that she will not plead guilty and demand a jury trial. She has all along protested her innocence and declared she had no connection with the burglarious tendencies of the other three under arrest.

The mayor suggests the establishment of public convenience stations and the expenditure of considerable sums in maintaining the city plant at its present efficiency standard.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY WITH NOVEL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Mason, who visited Oakland last week on the Orpheum circuit, entertained a company of friends at a dinner at the Orpheum. The steak dinner served after the performance for the evening had the thirty-sixth birthday of Homer B. Mason. The dinner was served in the Bohemian room, with the following present: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breen, Walter A. Howe, Herman Noble, Charles F. Lemon, Henry Norman, Miss Mary Wilczak, Miss Mary McManis, Miss Estelle Decker Granger, Miss Estelle Curran, Miss Mary Decker and Mr. J. Koster.

The dinner was also one of a series that the members of the party have enjoyed between Oakland and New York.

RELEASE ACCUSED FORGER OF CHECK

James E. Hunt Held by Mistake for Crime Confessed by Another.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Convicted that a mistake had been made in holding James E. Hunt to answer before the Superior Court for forgery, Police Judge Shortall today sent out to the County Jail for the accused and has promised to release him on his own recognizance. Hunt was arrested and charged with forging the endorsement to a check for $50 signed by E. R. Hayden, a real estate operator in the Phelan building, and passing it to the Merchants' National Bank on April 7. The testimony against Hunt was not very strong, but he was held because he had been positively identified by the paying teller of the institution. Now Benjamin Burnby, alias Anderson, has confessed that it was he who forged the endorsement and the name William E. Stern, which is on the back of the check, is in his handwriting.

Another allegation has been made against Hunt in Police Judge Deary's court and in the event of his release he may still be facing trouble. However, he has been able to furnish bail on the other charges and is likely to be liberated before nightfall.

GEORGE H. FAIRCHILD DIES WHILE ON VOYAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—George Harvey Fairchild, consulting engineer and one of the founders of the Native Sons of the Golden West, died on the steamship City of Para at Mazatlan, according to a wireless dispatch received yesterday by his family in this city.

Fairchild was 54 years old. He had been in Guatemala supervising the salvage of the German steamship Seneca, which went ashore on that coast. He became ill of fever and was sent north to recover.

Fairchild formerly was in the employ of the Pacific Mail and other steamship companies. He was also employed by the Omnibus Cable Company and the Market Street Railroad Company. He was superintendent of railroads in Nevada and Humboldt county, California. He was married to Mrs. Alice Fairchild, and had two sons, Hollis B. and George H. Jr. He lived at 400 Duboce avenue.

WOMEN'S PRESS ANNUAL APPEARS

Special Number of Green Star Magazine of Diversified Interest.

The annual number of the Green Star Magazine, published by the Pacific Coast Women's Press Association, contains some specially entertaining stories, poems and articles by well known writers. "The Irishman's Ride," by Jeanne Francouer, "The Reformers' League," by Mrs. I. Lowenberg, "The Abnegation of Sarah Dorn," Gene B. Lynch, and "The Children of Disobedience," by Lydia Brown, are among the interesting stories.

"The Significance of Woman Suffrage," an article by Lewis Edwin Thayer, tells how the women in a certain region in Northern California, given the franchise, were taught how to use it, and also the broadening influences and benefits that have derived from the ballot.

"Red Letter Days in the Legislature of 1912," by Mrs. Nellie Blinn, and "A Vacation Journey from San Francisco to New York," by Sophie S. Gardner, make worth while reading. Ina Colburn, Josephine B. Freeman, Racine McKenney, Sophie S. Gardner, Gertrude Allison, M. Thelma-Wailey are among the contributors of poems.

There are scores of persons, tired, run-down people throughout the city, suffering with pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, weakness of the bladder (frequently causing annoyance at night), who fail to realize the seriousness of their trouble until such conditions as chronic rheumatism, bladder troubles, dropsy, diabetes or even Bright's disease result. All this is due to weak, inactive Kidneys. The kidneys are the filters of the blood, and no one can be well and healthy unless the kidneys work properly. It is even more important than that the bowels move regularly. If you suffer with such symptoms do not neglect them, but get them cured and run the risk of serious complications.

how differently you will feel. Croxone cures the worst Kidney, Bladder trouble, and all other diseases that originate there. It cleans out the kidneys, and then filter out all the poisonous matter and uric acid, from the joints and the blood. It cures the scalds and heat bladder, and quickly relieves all your misery.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. It acts like a magnet on earth. It tells you how old you are or how you have suffered, it is so plain that it is practically impossible to fail in the human system to get results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first chemist. All druggists are authorized to sell it. Give the dealer your name and he will give the desired quantity. It will give the desired results the very first time you use it.

BETROTHALS are thick as leaves in Valhalla this season, every week bringing forth its quota to add to the sum of the engaged girls whose betrothals and affairs add so much to the whirl of the busy season. One of the latest engagements to be told is that of Miss Gladys Martha Pennell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coker Pennell, of 1420 Broadway, San Francisco, to Miss U. S. S. Pennell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. S. Pennell, of 1420 Broadway, San Francisco. The wedding is to take place during the summer. Meanwhile many complimentary affairs for the bride-elect will make the engagement days pass delightfully.

VISITORS IN PIEDMONT.
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gemmell are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Adams next Friday afternoon for a short stay. Mrs. Gemmell is the sister of Mrs. Adams and her husband is the assistant general manager of a large copper company in Salt Lake City. Many delightful affairs are being given for the visitors. Recently they enjoyed a motor trip to Burlingame as the guests of Major and Mrs. Sidney Clemen.

SAILED FOR EUROPE.
Among the passengers from this city on the George Washington, which sailed from New York April 19, were Mr. and Mrs. John Reidt and their three sons, Henry, John and Willie Reidt. A number of other California people were on the passenger list of the liner.

DANCE FOR NIECE.
Mrs. Charles Butters will give a card party for a dance which she will give in honor of her niece, Miss Lois Crosby, on Wednesday evening, April 30. A large number of the younger smart set will be bidden for the occasion.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD.
Miss Norma Neware announced her engagement to Dewey R. Powell at a recent dinner at which she was hostess in her Berkeley home. Miss Neware is the daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Neware of Berkeley, and she and her fiancé are both graduates of the University of California with the class of 1912. The bride-elect has been connected with the psychology department of the university since her graduation. She is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa society. Mr. Powell was active in athletics during his college days and was connected with several of the Greek letter societies. He is at present practicing medicine in Stockton where he will take his bride to reside after the ceremony in June.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS.
Mrs. E. G. Dewald will be a luncheon hostess next Friday afternoon, entertaining the matrons who form the members of one of the small card clubs. Bridge will follow the daintily appointed luncheon at Mrs. Dewald's Piedmont home. Among the members of the club are Mrs. M. H. D. Fouts, Mrs. L. Wolf, Mrs. George Lunt, Mrs. George Lamb, Mrs. Frederick Marriott, Mrs. Joseph D. Hoyt and several others.

WEDDING ATTENDANTS CHOSEN.
Miss Sylvia McCurtie has chosen her attendants for her wedding to William Starling Cooper, which is to be a June ceremony. Miss McCurtie has chosen as bridesmaids Miss Ellen McCurtie, who was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Gertrude Postel and Miss Vivian Church. The service will be read in the McCurtie home in Alameda.

RECEPTION AT HOTEL.
One of the most elaborately and beautifully appointed functions of the season was the reception given by Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook today at the Hotel Oakland, where she is domiciled for the spring and early summer months. More than four hundred guests called during the afternoon to greet the hostess, who was assisted in receiving by a coterie of intimate friends. Numbers of friends came from across the bay and from Marin county and Burlingame as well as from the east bay cities to attend the affair, and many stunningly handsome gowns were worn by the smart matrons and maids who chatted in animated groups or clustered about the tea tables.

The ivory ballroom was made into a garden of verdure, with a spring-like color scheme of roses and white, with touches of delicate lavender, relieved by the deep green of large potted palms and growing plants in clusters. The large tea-table had an elaborate centerpiece of pink chrysanthemums, ferns, and large rhododendrons in the same rosy shade were grouped about the walls. The ballroom was divided into two large drawing rooms by a lattice covered with pale lavender wisteria and other trailing vines. Large baskets of pink roses completed the charming ensemble. The reception room on the Alice street side of the hotel was a picture of beauty with floral decorations in tones of old rose and red, tulips and other blossoms of the season, brightened by growing palms and shrubs in jardiniere. Mrs. Easterbrook is the new president of the Home Club, and is a gracious matron whose engaging personality and charming manner have endeared her to countless friends. The function at the hotel this afternoon was the first elaborate reception given by Mrs. Easterbrook this season, and was one of the important social events of the spring.

WEDDING DATE CHOSEN.
Miss Hannah Moore has chosen the date of her wedding to John Frederick Thomas for the month of August, the exact date to be announced later. The marriage will be one of the important social events of the summer. Miss Moore's engagement was announced a short time ago.

WOMEN TAKE UP TAX FUND WORK
Civic Center Will Hold Meeting to Discuss Subject of $1 Certificate Campaign.

The women of Oakland are taking a deep interest in the movement which the Alameda County Tax Association started two years ago in favor of efficient and economical municipal and county governments. The Oakland Civic Center, an influential woman's organization devoted to civic betterment, has arranged to hold a meeting at the chamber of commerce hall, at 2300 Broadway, Friday afternoon to discuss the subject of the proposed charter for Alameda county which the Tax Association is promoting, and, for the purpose of obtaining a thoroughly reliable basis on which such a charter may be framed, it has taken the initial steps toward raising a fund of $50,000 by popular subscription, the same to be devoted to the employment of the best known and most competent and experienced experts in the science of municipal government obtainable in the United States to make a thorough scientific investigation of the governmental conditions existing in Alameda county and in the ten incorporated cities therein, their findings to serve as a basis on which the proposed county charter may be constructed, the adoption of which by the people will give them a model government at a minimum cost to the taxpayers.

PLAN IS ADOPTED.
The Tax Association has decided to adopt this plan for two reasons. In the first place, the employment of experts in municipal government whose high standards and proficiency are acknowledged as pre-eminent throughout the United States and whose services are sought by all communities striving to attain the greatest efficiency and economy in the management of their affairs will result in recommendations for a system of local government which cannot be reasonably challenged for the simple reason that they will be absolutely disinterested and unbiased by local influences and associations.

In the second place, the raising of the fund of $50,000 for this purpose will enlist the interest and support of fifty thousand taxpayers and voters in the result of the scientific investigation of these experienced experts.

Among the guests were Miss Elsie Paru, Miss Ella Biore, Miss Eva Mallick, Miss Stella Larsen, Miss Eleanor Knox, Miss Edith Haines, Miss Rose Nicholson, Miss Constance Manning, Miss Rose Coppe, Miss Ethel Douke, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Rose Wallace, Miss Myrtle Harrison, Miss R. Coppe, Miss Violet Wallace, Miss Elsie Mallick, Mrs. Clara Hauson, Mrs. Keith Nealey, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. A. Augers, Mrs. C. Harrison, Mrs. A. J. Lewis, Mrs. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. R. MILLS STUDENTS WILL HOLD FETE
Dancing Will Be Feature of the Novel Celebration of College.

Students of the senior class of Mills College will present a May Day festival on the college campus Saturday afternoon, April 26. The out of door festival is an unusual event at the women's college, and is witnessed by hundreds of visitors from the bay cities. The interpretative dancing, the chief feature of the fete, will be directed by Miss Margaret Andrews of the Department of Physical Education.

Vocal solos, a general prologue and introductions to the various dances will be rendered by Miss Alice Coleman of the graduating class. Contributing in no small measure to the beauty and effectiveness of the dances will be the costumes designed and arranged by Miss Ethel Ronsone, also of the senior class. A complimentary invitation is issued to all friends of the college to attend the festival.

TANGO NOT TAUGHT AT EXPENSE OF THE STATE

LA CROSSE, Wis., April 23.—If women members of the State Normal school faculty wish to learn the tango and other ultra-modern dances, they cannot do so at the expense of the state according to a ruling yesterday by President Cotton of the Normal school. President Cotton has cancelled the contract of a dancing professor who came here from New York to instruct the normal teachers.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS
AMERICAN GIRL TO WED DUKE OF CROY

Pair Defies German and Austrian Courts; May Be Ostracized.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Capital society yesterday witnessed the dating of Miss Nancy Leishman, daughter of the American ambassador to Germany and her fiancé, the Duke of Croy, in defying the German and Austrian courts and announcing their engagement.

These were who know the young couple do not doubt that they will carry their bold plan through despite opposition. What their social status will be if they marry is the subject of much speculation.

They will not, of course, be received at either German or Austrian courts, but there is no reason why they should be denied recognition in France or America. The public of Croy was mediated by Napoleon and the duke will probably find recourse to that patent of nobility.

Miss Leishman will be a dowryless bride, but the duke has his feudal estates at Dachen, Westphalia, and is wealthy, according to the standards of that part of the empire.

Friends of the couple say that the loss of prestige in Germany and Austria will not worry the duke nor their social ostracism either the plucky American girl.

"Who can help but admire the daring of Nancy and the duke?" said one of the matrons of the capital today. "Of course, if they wed they will commit social suicide in Germany and Austria, but apparently that does not frighten them."

"All the world loves a lover, you know, and I am sure the duke's friends will think him more of a man for marrying from neglect. The duke of the duke pays is a heavy one, judged by continental standards."

"How will Nancy be received here if she marries the duke? I can't imagine the war lord's position in the match making the unkindest bit of difference on side. I rather think they will be received as the hero and heroine in an international love match."

Mrs. Bryan Speaks

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Mrs. William Jennings Bryan was the principal speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in session here. She made an appeal for a closer federation of all religious denominations and declared there was a strong tendency in this direction.

Must Pay Board

BOSTON, April 23.—An unusual case was decided yesterday when a jury awarded to Mrs. Elizabeth T. Beals, plaintiff, $172.94 as payment from Milton A. Woodbury for his board and lodging while he lived with her as her husband. Woodbury is a well known Boston restaurant keeper.

The suit is an outgrowth of an "Enoch Arden" affair. Mrs. Beals' first husband, Charles L. Beals, disappeared in 1894 and she thought him dead. Woodbury became acquainted with her three years ago, he testified, when the wires became crossed while they were both telephoning to their next of kin. Mrs. Beals followed Woodbury and he returned and claimed his wife. The Woodbury marriage was annulled and Mrs. Beals then sued for the cost of her former husband's board and lodging.

Aigrettes Barred

HARRISBURG, April 23.—The bill prohibiting the sale of aigrettes and the shipment of such feathers into or out of the state after July 1, 1914, was approved by Governor Tener yesterday.

TITANIC CLAIMS MAY NOT BE ALLOWED. IS SAID

NEW YORK, April 23.—That the 381 persons who have filed death claims against the Titanic probably will not be able to collect a cent of damages is the opinion of many New York lawyers. A Gordon Murray believes, unless the United States courts make some special arrangements to have the claims transferred to the English courts, they all will be barred because the time limit for filing them has passed.

CLERGYMAN PLANS TOUR.

PALO ALTO, April 23.—Rev. Clarence Reed, pastor of the Palo Alto Unitarian church, and Mrs. Reed will depart on an eight months' tour of Europe.

During Mr. Reed's absence the pulpit here will be filled by Rev. William S. Morgan of Berkeley.

NAPA COUPLE WED.

NAPA, April 23.—Miss Elizabeth McIntyre and Robert Holden were married here yesterday. The bride is a sister of Superintendent M. McIntyre of the San Francisco, Napa and Calistoga Electric Railway. The bridegroom is a member of a pioneer family of this city and is assistant cashier in a local bank.

LASTING BEAUTY

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1913, by Lillian Russell.)

WE read that Psyche was assigned the difficult mission of descending into Hades to bring away a fragment of beauty in a box for the gods to sample, and lo! when the lid was lifted there was a vapor. Much of the loveliness we find in high social circles today has no more foundation for durability than the legendary vapor. But to those women who have brains and minds to exercise their brains, beauty has a more permanent significance. That there is a science which may be successfully pursued towards physical perfection is a fact to be impressed upon every woman who has a desire to please. Moreover, this science does not consist in a display of clothes and jewels, nor paints and powders; these are only the resources of those effete days when a woman who had not been planned on the scheme of absolute beauty by nature's hand, was ill made and unlovely to the end.

Personal beauty should be one of the subjects of every girl's earnest study and consideration for half an hour each day. Its first precept is plain living and high thinking, and its perfection rests on excellence of blood, bearing and brains. Temperance, purity and exercise create an external beauty that indicates an internal excellence. Deformed limbs express a want of harmony in the system of motion. A bad skin is the result of impure blood; an expansive head conveys the idea of mental activity. While there are as many styles of womanly elegance as there are colors on a painter's palette, there have been but few perfect models. Cornova was obliged to use the combined grace and symmetry of sixty different women in his celebrated statue of Venus.

A word of consolation: To be an acknowledged beauty is an almost insupportable responsibility; she is supposed to look like a freshly-sculptured Venus at all times. To be beautiful in person only is to court trouble, temptation and envy. Therefore rather cultivate a beauty of mind so strong and pure that it will not only reflect a beauty in countenance, but will be an impregnable barrier against spurious flattery. Remember, everyone should look as well as possible, for the body is but the outward symbol of the real and inmost self.

Answers to Queries

MADGE—Dry shampoos, when used too frequently, are not good for the hair. It may make the hair fluff for a few days after using it, but in time the hair will become more oily than ever. Wash the hair with a good shampoo. Two times a month is not too often to shampoo the hair, if it is extremely oily. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you a formula for a tonic and shampoo for oily hair.

MRS. F. T. Z.—Blackheads are sometimes caused from indigestion or anaemia, but more frequently from neglect. The pores of the skin fill up and a speck of dirt settles in them, and these are blackheads. They cannot be forced out, for they will only come back, but they can be coaxed out by cleansing the face thoroughly with a good cold cream each night before retiring, then washing the face in warm water and good soap, using a camel's hair complexion brush to get all the dirt out of the pores.

Rinse the face in warm water and then in cold. The cold water hardens the flesh and closes the pores. Powder is harmless if it is cleansed out of the pores every night. If you do not do this it will clog up the pores and cause blackheads. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall send you the recipe for a tonic and formula for an excellent cold cream.

fects, spinach and other greens are rich in iron. Green corn is a marked laxative. Lettuce and celery have a distinctively sedative effect on the nervous system.

MRS. T. S.—If you wish smooth elbows don't use them as props. The elbows must be taken care of each night as well as the face unless you want to have them dark and hard. Scrub them good with a hand brush, then rub cold cream into them. This will soften them and gradually make them smooth.

E. C.—The only thing I can suggest is to just leave your hair alone. The dye will gradually wear off, but of course the hair will not look nice for a while, for it will get streaked. Shampoo it about every three weeks, using a good shampoo. If you care for it and will send me a stamped, addressed envelope, I shall be glad to send you a formula for an excellent shampoo for the hair.

R. T. C.—The mixture made from the following formula is fine to use on the hands or in the bath. It leaves the skin as smooth as satin and of a refreshing fragrance. One pound of powdered almonds, one pound of finely powdered oatmeal, one-half pound dry and powdered castile soap, two ounces powdered orris root, six ounces finely powdered pumice stone, two drams of oil of bitter almonds. This is delightful, to be used instead of soap on the hands if they chafe easily. If used in the bath it may be put in coarse cheese cloth bags, but for the woman who must wash her hands often, a little of it rubbed into the hands makes an excellent cleansing material and counteracts the ill effects of much soap and hard water.

PLAYGROUND FESTIVAL

TO CALL OUT TALENT

Special interest is being taken by the girls and boys of Melrose Playground in the coming May festival to be given by the playground department on May 10 at Lakeside Park. This is largely due to the fact that the May Queen, Marjorie Best, and her attendants, were chosen from this playground. The participants in the various dances are practicing very assiduously as they wish to carry off the honors on May day as being the most finished dancers from all the playgrounds in Oakland.

The following are the actors who take part in the various dances: Maypole, Viola Bradshaw, Adelaide Schmidt, Alberta Schmidt, Muriel Carter, Katie Swinger, Gladys Fraga, Doris Calhorn, Gladys Hunter, Grace Wallace, Doris De Haas, Minnie DeHaas, Edna Andrews, Florence Stultz, Lenora Silvers, Albi Simonetti, Dore Simonetti, Edith Tornkide, Helen C. Helen C. Barusch, Irish lilt—Dana Simonen, Blanche Andrews, Tina Covington, Bertha Poulsen, Mary Swinger, Gertrude Dahl, Carolyn Knudsen, Phoebe Rose, Silvia Marques, Annie Melbo.

Queen's attendants—Wanda Stachl, Engenia Kachinski, Edith Tibbets, Benadise Benjamin, Olga Simonen, Marie Simonen, Gertrude Christianen, Marie Boyson, Madeline Best, Leitha Shannon, Florence Hart, Helen Dahl.

MIDGETS CROSS BATS.
On April 19 the Midgets of De Fremery crossed bats with the Eagles at De Fremery. The game was a very close one. In the ninth inning Landrigan knocked a single bringing in the winning run, making the score 13 to 13 in favor of the De Fremery Midgets. In the afternoon the De Fremery Juniors crossed bats with the speedy team from Clawson, and won out by a score of 16 to 1.

Melrose batted out an easy victory over Mosswood Saturday, the score being 17 to 6. Wright pitched a bang-up game for Melrose, while Griffin for Mosswood was touched up quite freely. The line up was as follows:

EAST BAY SHORE IS GREAT INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

The Logical Center of the Great Commercial Opportunities of the Pacific Coast

Federal Census Report Gives Oakland Enviably Position

B. D. H. BRADLEY, Asst. Secretary Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

Oakland and the east bay shore cities make up an industrial community of no small importance, even when measured by the standard of cities in the populous states of the East. This industrial district is in point of fact one of the most important in the United States. That is a large claim, but the cold figures of the census bureau bear them out.

The east bay shore community is more than any other of thirty-four principal manufacturing and commercial cities of the United States, a district of thirty-four cities. In only three of these thirty-four cities is the importance of manufactures to the total business greater than it is in this community on the continental side of this great harbor, the entire district which is through the Golden Gate. That is even a more pretentious claim than the preceding. It may surprise even some of the people who live in Oakland, Alameda, Hayward, San Leandro, Emeryville, Albany, Richmond and other cities of Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

There has been a great deal of anxiety to make this community a factory center. There have been many regrets, in the past, that we did not have many factories. It has hardly been appreciated by the citizens of Alameda county that in comparison with others they had more factories and that very much more than the usual this community is kept up and is being built up by its factories.

BANK CLEARINGS.

The bank clearings of a community are taken as a basis for estimating the general trust of that community. The bank clearings of Oakland for the year 1912 amounted to $192,000,000, leaving off the odd hundred thousand.

The value of the products of the factories in the east bay shore cities was $77,500,000. The value of the factory output amounted to forty per cent of the total bank clearings.

Now compare the above figure with those relating to important industrial cities of the country.

In Boston the value of the factory output is three per cent of the bank clearings.

In Buffalo the value of the factory output is forty-three per cent of the bank clearings.

In Rochester the value of the factory output is fifty-one per cent of the bank clearings.

In Lancaster, Pa., the value of the factory output is twenty-three per cent of the bank clearings.

In Pittsburgh the value of the factory output is nine per cent of the bank clearings.

In Philadelphia, the value of the factory output is seven per cent of the bank clearings.

In Wilkes-Barre the value of the factory output is twelve per cent of the bank clearings.

In Baltimore the value of the factory output is eleven per cent of the bank clearings.

In Richmond the value of the factory output is twelve per cent of the bank clearings.

In Wheeling the value of the factory output is thirty per cent of the bank clearings.

In Birmingham the value of the factory output is nineteen per cent of the bank clearings.

In Houston the value of the factory output is three per cent of the bank clearings.

In Memphis the value of the factory output is nine per cent of the bank clearings.

In Cincinnati the value of the factory output is fifteen per cent of the bank clearings.

In Cleveland the value of the factory output is twenty-seven per cent of the bank clearings.

In Dayton the value of the factory output is fifty-four per cent of the bank clearings.

In Indianapolis the value of the factory output is thirty per cent of the bank clearings.

In Chicago the value of the factory output is six per cent of the bank clearings.

In Peoria the value of the factory output is thirty per cent of the bank clearings.

In Detroit the value of the factory output is twenty-seven per cent of the bank clearings.

In Grand Rapids the value of the factory output is thirty-one per cent of the bank clearings.

In Milwaukee the value of the factory output is thirty per cent of the bank clearings.

In Minneapolis the value of the factory output is fifteen per cent of the bank clearings.

In Kansas City the value of the factory output is two per cent of the bank clearings.

In St. Louis the value of the factory output is nine per cent of the bank clearings.

In Omaha the value of the factory output is eight per cent of the bank clearings.

In Denver the value of the factory output is eleven per cent of the bank clearings.

In Seattle the value of the factory output is nine per cent of the bank clearings.

In Spokane the value of the factory output is eight per cent of the bank clearings.

In Portland the value of the factory output is three per cent of the bank clearings.

In Los Angeles the value of the factory output is eight per cent of the bank clearings.

In San Francisco the value of the factory output is six per cent of the bank clearings.

In Salt Lake City the value of the factory output is six per cent of the bank clearings.

Now when is this list of thirty-four of the leading industrial centers of the country? It is in the east bay shore.

It is in the east bay shore that the manufacturing output to be a larger fraction of the total business of the community than in the case in Oakland.

It is in the east bay shore that the community is properly to be one of the important industrial districts of the country.

A further analysis of the above figures will show that the manufacturing business in this east bay shore district is far more important as compared with other lines of business than is the case in any other city on the Pacific coast, or in the Pacific coast and inter-mountain states.

Oakland people and those who live in Alameda, Emeryville, Hayward, San Leandro, Berkeley, Albany, Richmond and other east bay shore cities have seen the volume of manufactured output grow year by year and almost day by day. Only the closest students of the general progress of the community have grasped the meaning or had a full understanding of the developments in industrial lines.

Great as has been the growth of this district during the past ten years in population, in betterment of streets, making of parks, construction of houses for residence and business purposes and improvement of facilities for transportation of merchandise and passengers, the growth of the manufacturing industry has been as great as in any line.

The federal government takes a census of factories every five years. The last one was taken in 1909 and another will be taken this year. The federal census bureau rule defines the class of establishments that are counted. There are a large number of industrial establishments, which by reason of the value of their output, the method of operation are not taken into consideration by the federal census bureau, but which in the aggregate contribute a large fraction to the general business of the community. Oakland and the east bay shore communities have seen in the federal census report the number of this class of establishments spring up and do a thriving business.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce endeavors to keep track of these as well as of the larger ones.

FEDERAL CENSUS REPORTS.

The federal census report for 1909 and 1914 shows that the increase of manufacturing operations in the cities on the east bay shore was phenomenal. In Oakland the increase in this five-year period was:

Establishments, 78 per cent; in capital invested 109 per cent; in salaries and wages paid, 167 per cent; in value of products, 148 per cent; in number of employees, 177 per cent. Berkeley showed nearly 100 per cent increase in number of establishments; more than 300 per cent in salaries and wages earned; nearly 300 per cent in capital and nearly 300 per cent in value of products.

Alameda and Richmond showed proportionate increase, while Emeryville and smaller towns of Alameda and Contra Costa counties, though not specified by the government report, kept abreast of the leaders of the procession.

That was a growth in which any community could take pride.

The growth of the manufacturing business has been equally as good during the period from 1909 to 1913. There are now in the east bay shore district, more than twelve hundred establishments engaged in manufacturing. The value of the annual output of these is approximately seventy-seven millions dollars.

There are at least thirty-five thousand people employed in the manufacturing of this east bay shore district. The amount of wages paid these employees is annually more than thirty millions dollars. This is money kept at home and it represents a vast sum that is yearly going into the upbuilding of these east bay shore cities.

USE HOME PRODUCTS.

It is estimated that there is used by each one of the three hundred thousand residents of this district an average of one hundred dollars worth of the factory products brought from distant states and foreign countries.

A portion of these foreign or outside made factory products cannot be profitably made here and as an economic proposition they will continue to be made elsewhere. But the present population and the equipment for making the things that are needed for general use at least one-third of this amount could be supplied from the stocks of local factories. If this ten millions worth was bought at home factories it would at one stroke add to the output of our factories nearly one-seventh. It would mean employment for six or seven thousand more people in the home factories. It would mean the wages of these six or seven thousand more people kept at home, with retail merchants and put into new residence property. It would mean an addition of at least thirty thousand people to the population. More than that, it would mean keeping here ten millions of money that now goes to distant states and foreign countries.

Few people realize the number of articles that enter into our daily use manufactured in this east bay district. Here is a partial list:

Automobiles, automobiles, agricultural implements, artificial limbs, artificial stone, automobile wheels, automobile tops, automobile bodies, asphalt roofing, awnings, animal foods, borsax, bags (cotton, burlap and paper), baking powder, bar iron and steel, baskets, beer, belting (rubber), binders, bicycles, book-binding, books (sales-check, etc.), boots, boxes (paper and wooden), brass goods, brass work, breakfast foods, bread, brick (all kinds), brooms, brushes, builders' supplies, burial materials, butler, butter, rubber molds and boxes, bookcases, bugles, brass, brackets, buckets, bronze articles, burial vaults, butter-boats, cutlery, cables (wire, electrical, underground and submarine), camp furnishings, candy, canned goods, carbonated beverages, carpet warp, cars (street cars, coaches, freight and ore), caulkets, castings (all kinds), caulking cotton, cement, cement specialties, cereals, chairs, chemicals and acids, cigarettes, clear cloth (cotton and jute filter, cotton ducks, damask and crash, burlaps, baggings and window-shade) clothing, comforters, compounds (submarine and insulating), copper work (bowls, jars, trays, lamps, etc.), cordage (all kinds of cotton and hemp twines and cords), cornices, cotton batting, couches, crackers, catsup, cheese, carriages, clay products, dies, disinfectors, door

FACTORS IN DEVELOPMENT.

The excellence of the output of the factories in this district is recognized by the world over. Almost daily trucks can be seen on the streets of Oakland, making their way to the wharves loaded with machinery and other products of the factories of the district.

Consignment to cities of the continent, Asia, Australia, Europe, South America, Alaska and, in fact, to all portions of the civilized world.

The reasons back of the rapid development of this district which appeal to the clear-headed business man are:

Within the last ten years the development of the use of crude oil as fuel and the use of electricity for power purposes, have solved the problem of cheap power for manufacturing purposes on the east bay shore. Fuel oil gives to the manufacturer power at a cheaper rate per horsepower than the eastern or foreign competitors can secure under any conditions. The practically inexhaustible supply of oil in California fields and the cheapness with which it can be delivered to these east bay shore factories through pipe lines makes the fuel oil a sharp competitor with the electric current. The power cost manufacturers more in Oakland and other east bay shore communities than anywhere else in the United States, today these same manufacturers are securing their power as cheaply as the most favored of their competitors, no matter where they may be located.

Another important factor in the development of the industrial activity of this community is the excellent climatic conditions. A well-known manager of a coast factory is a well-thought for the statement that a few years ago his establishment was brought into direct competition with a particular factory in Pennsylvania, in making a particular article. The contract required work of his mill for several months. He paid higher wages than his Eastern competitor. The union rule required him to run fewer hours one hour and half in the twenty-four, while his wage reference amounted to nearly twenty per cent. Notwithstanding the shorter hours his workmen were enabled to turn out enough more work each day to more than make up the difference in time employed and the difference in wages paid, and he won out over his competitor by being enabled to turn out the goods at a cheaper price. The healthfulness of the employee, the rapidity of physical disability arising from badly maintained and heated or too cold places for working are in favor of the California factory and more especially of the factory located on the Alameda and Contra Costa county shores of the bay. This perfect physical condition of the employee carries with it a alertness of brain that makes him more than equal to his brother workman in similar occupation who has to struggle against the rigorous cold of winter and the enervating heat of summer, characteristic of the eastern and, in fact, of most countries where factories are located.

The great growth of the manufacturing industries in Oakland and other Alameda county towns and cities and the neighboring communities along the east bay shore has come largely from a recognition of the fact that a superior efficiency of the operative can be secured here. Linking this with the cheap power which the finds and the demand for manufactured goods created by the rapid development of the interior valleys of California, you have the secret of this great industrial growth revealed.

As the population of California and the adjacent states increases, it is reasonable to expect that the manufacturing industries of this region will increase in proportion. In fact, the cheap power, excellent transportation facilities and ideal climatic conditions, together with the inducements to skilled operatives to make their homes here, may be expected to make this community one in which the importance of the manufacturing industry will always be greater in proportion to population than is usual.

LOCAL INDUSTRY ATTRACTS NOTICE

Educational Exhibition Calls Forth Praiseworthy Comments.

One of the most attractive exhibits of the Alameda county manufacturers' exhibition is that shown by the PACIFIC LEATHER WORKS. Their booth is artistically draped with various leathers used for different purposes, and the display is educational in the fullest sense. This company is doing an immense business in the eastern states and foreign countries, but like many of our local industries is little known here. They manufacture a fire protector in four different styles to meet varying conditions of road surface. These completely enclose the tire and engage with the casing itself at the rim. The tread is buttressed with a tough leather strip, studded with diamond-hard rivets and the sidewalls are of vulcanized rubber and fabric.

These protectors are guaranteed to be puncture-proof and to run five thousand miles. They are inexpensive and double the life of a casing that has been worn out. Although the PACIFIC LEATHER WORKS has been in existence for only twenty years, a half the demand for its products is exceeding its capacity, and its growth has been so rapid that it will soon become one of the most important industries of the county. The president, Mr. V. K. STURGES, has compiled an interesting booklet upon the tire problem, which, aside from being a description of the products of this company, is filled with valuable information for the car owner. This may be secured promptly for the asking.

NEW HEATER CO. SHOWS PROGRESS

The new Deasy Perfection combination heater and boiler now on exhibition at the manufacturers' exhibit in the basement of the Kahn building demonstrates the perfection to which the hot water heating system has advanced. This heater is the latest effort of our well-known P. A. Deasy of Oakland. Mr. Deasy is the best known gas water heater man in the United States, but as the old saying is, "A prophet is best known in his own country," therefore the knowledge of Mr. Deasy at home demonstrates his popularity abroad.

This is entirely a home product and is manufactured only by the Deasy Heating Company, which is a corporation organized under the laws of the state of California. It has a large factory building at No. 16 Seventh street and main offices at rooms 206-7-8-9 Third National Bank building. It has been in existence less than one year, but is already doing a highly prosperous and very extensive business throughout the coast. The factory output to the present time has been unable to fill the orders practically without solicitation, and the factory output is being daily increased.

The factory and business will undoubtedly soon extend to every point in the United States. The officers and directors of this company are well-known business men of Oakland and each and every one gives their individual and personal attention to the success of this company. It is destined to be one of the great commercial factors of the Pacific coast.

ANTIQUE FURNITURE UP-TO-DATE

We have always been more or less inclined to look upon antique furniture as a lost art, thinking that the furniture of our ancestors could not be duplicated in this day and age. And it cannot be by machinery. But right here in "My City Oakland" furniture as fine or finer than our forefathers made is being produced by the skilled workmen in R. J. Hunter's factory at 2156 Telegraph. Mr. Hunter has been a cabinet maker for over sixty years, having served his apprenticeship in the old country. His references are the best in the city.

SPRING BED EXHIBIT

We cannot discriminate, but perhaps the Pacific Spring Bed Company's exhibit is one of the most unique and practical exhibits shown. Nine years ago they started to manufacture in a small way the famous Leggett Spring Bed. They met with not only a strong prejudice against so small a local manufacture in favor of the old established known manufacture of the East.

But their trademark was QUALITY.

Today in the entire Pacific coast every first-class dealer with pride handles the Leggett Spring, and not a single one but what will tell you that they are the best spring bed made.

They are sold under a ten-year guarantee.

It will pay you to stop and see the practical demonstration of this famous Leggett Spring Bed.

BUSINESS MAN BOOSTS OUR CITY

Energetic Manufacturer Acquires Enormous Following.

The Daahl-Thoms Awning Company, manufacturers of tents, camp furniture, awnings, canvas bags of all descriptions, hammocks, wagon and buggy top covers, bags, etc., is now under the personal direction of Mr. P. Thoms. Mr. Thoms first came to Oakland merely on a short visit, and he became so favorably impressed with the advantages of this city, both as a manufacturing center and for its superior shipping facilities, that as soon as he could dispose of his business in San Francisco he moved to this side of the bay and established himself in the Daahl-Thoms Tent and Awning Company at 589 Eighth street. This concern at that time was employing but six people. The Daahl-Thoms Tent and Awning Company now employ sixty people steadily and during the rush seasons many more. They occupy their own building and are equipped with all the latest machinery for their trade.

Mr. Thoms has secured a very valuable patent—a canvas arrangement that can be fitted to any window, bringing pure, fresh air into the sleeping rooms, preventing drafts and other disagreeable features usual to open windows. This patented fresh air arrangement is strongly recommended by leading physicians and hospitals, as having points that are superior to the ordinary sleeping porch. There is probably not another man in Oakland who is more firmly attached to his city and who sees greater possibilities for it than Mr. Thoms. He is a consistent booster and backs up his boosting by doing things. He is one of the largest manufacturers of this particular line of goods in this part of the state, and the reason that his business has grown so fast is because he has always charged reasonable prices for the goods he has manufactured.

MOOSE INSTALLATION.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Alameda Lodge of Moose will install (at following new officers tonight) Past Dictator, A. J. St. Sure, Dictator, Frank R. Quigley, vice Dictator, G. A. Leroux, prelate, Dr. C. P. A modern home is not complete unless supplied with canvas awnings for the windows and porches. They more than save their cost the first three months they are in use. In fact, the cost of an awning does not exceed one-sixteenth part of a cent per day and is therefore within the reach of everyone. Shades are all right, but the sun hits the glass just the same and heats up the room inside. Awnings keep the sun away from the glass and the result is a cool and comfortable home. If you have a porch or intend to build one you ought to equip it with awnings or curtains, as you really cannot sit outside on a windy day without them. Let us fix up a cozy corner for you on your porch and you will be surprised how much better you will feel and how much more you will live out of doors.

HAT DISPLAY ATTRACTS
ENORMOUS CROWDS

The one booth which is always thronged with men is the booth of Bertillon, leading hatter, who is showing the people of Alameda county how hats are made. Said Mr. Bertillon when interviewed by our reporter: "There are no hats really manufactured in California nor on the coast. For that reason the display is more interesting because I had more people who have worn hats in their lives yet have no idea how they are made. There are a few people, however, who buy hats in the rough state from eastern manufacturers and put the trimmings, etc., on here. Of course they cannot be called California made. This display shows the fur in its raw state up to the finished product."

THE HOWARD CO.

The HOWARD COMPANY established a plant for the handling of COAL, BUILDING MATERIAL and GRAIN at FIRST and MARKET STREETS in 1889 and have since conducted a steadily increasing business in these lines. Their plant has gradually increased in size until it now comprises nearly twenty acres. They have deep water wharves and every facility for handling cargoes. They have their own locomotive, locomotive cranes, sand schooners and barges, and have installed motor-truck equipment for their building material department capable of delivering 1000 cubic yards of material per day.

In the grain line they have a warehouse of 10,000 tons capacity and handle all kinds of grain, flour, mill feed, beans, rice, seeds, poultry and stock food, cargoes of which are brought direct to their own dock.

KAHN EMPORIUM
HOST TO MANY

Present Manufactures Exhibit Means of Acquainting Many With Size of Structure.

When the new Kahn Emporium is opened next August it will be familiar to tens of thousands of people who will have had the opportunity of "getting acquainted" with it prior to big opening.

The beautiful emporium is so big and so conveniently located that certain active parties could not wait until it was completed before beginning to take advantage of the grand opportunity that is offered for exhibit and observation purposes.

The two first floors presented a lively appearance last Thursday afternoon when it was filled with visiting ladies assembled for the purpose of viewing the magnificent Knights Templar parade. The new incident of these ladies being permitted to use this point of advantage for a couple of hours was the smallest element in the proceeding.

These ladies came from every city and town in California and before they left the building they had been escorted onto every floor, had been shown the immense facilities for up-to-date shopping, had been made acquainted with many modern innovations to be found in no other city west of Chicago, and naturally the result must have been that each of these guests left the Kahn Emporium with feelings of admiration for its magnificent construction and with new ideas regarding the possibilities of shopping in Oakland under the most modern conditions. In other words, the courtesies extended to the ladies on last Thursday sent out at least 2000 splendid advertisements of Oakland and its shopping possibilities.

Few people in Oakland had any idea that the word "accreage" could be used in connection with the Kahn basement until the opening of the manufacturers' exhibit last Saturday night. The magnitude of this "basement" astonished everybody. It is sixteen feet high or deep, and although there are 125 large exhibits, with ample aisles, the crowd easily have been installed fifty more exhibits. Not only are people admiring the exhibits, but they are learning a most interesting lesson by having the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the remarkable details of modern construction upon which the immense building rests. The miles of tubing and piping which are strung across thousands of feet of concrete beams are cause of hourly wonderment to the hundreds who are attending the exposition. It is not often that the public has the satisfaction of thoroughly exploring the basement of a modern building. It is usually regarded as a sort of mystery. But in the Kahn building it is used today as a magnificent lesson in modern construction and incidentally showing just what kind of buildings Oakland needs and can expect in the immediate future.

THE E. K. WOOD
LUMBER COMPANY

Exhibiting at the Manufacturing Exhibition.

The E. K. Wood Lumber Company, under the general management of George B. Waddell, is one of the large institutions Oakland has reason to feel very proud of.

This company has mills at Beltingham and Gray's Harbor, Wash., and branch yards at Los Angeles, San Pedro, San Anselmo and San Rafael, and in various capacities gives employment to 2000 men, 300 of whom are employed in Oakland alone.

The local yards are situated at Frederick and King streets, having ideal water and rail facilities for the rapid handling of lumber cargoes. As a matter of fact the firm has the most efficient and up-to-date method on the coast for this purpose by making use of the Mono rail system, a time and labor saving device strictly in keeping with the progressiveness of the company in all other branches of its business. The company controls and operates five steamers and eight sailing vessels plying between various points on the coast and carrying cargoes for this firm exclusively. It is this fact alone the magnitude of the business of the E. K. Wood Lumber Company can be readily seen by the general public.

OLNEY'S CONCRETE MIXER

One of the most novel and practical exhibits and one which attracts general interest is the concrete mixer exhibited at the merchants and manufacturers' exhibit by A. S. Olney. This is the very latest and most up-to-date mixer, embodying entirely new principles of mixing which are so simple and practical that a contractor need only see it at work to be convinced that it is the greatest money saver on the market. This small size hand mixer has shown in its work on Sixteenth street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets at Tenth and Washington streets that it will mix twelve cubic yards per hour turned by one man.

This has been witnessed by thousands of people. This same size driven by a one-horse power gasoline engine will mix fifteen yards per hour and at a cost of 20 cents per yard. Mr. Olney asks for men who are in the concrete business to come and see it work. Mr. Olney's years of experience as concrete inspector gave him the practical knowledge of what was most needed as a concrete mixer. Three-fourths of all the concrete handled is made up of small jobs and as hand mixing is very unsatisfactory and has only been tolerated for want of a practical machine mixer for small jobs the Olney mixer seems to fill the bill. Mr. Olney can be reached by phone at Oakland 8122 between 6 and 7 p. m.

MISS LILLIAN B. TALLY TO WED LOS ANGELES MERCHANT

Accomplished Beauty Is Songbird

Miss Lillian Belle Tally, daughter of the late Captain T. S. and Mrs. Jane B. Tally of 585 Forty-first street, will become the bride of Julian Corf, a wealthy merchant of Los Angeles, this evening in the Key Route Inn. In the presence of about fifty intimate friends and relatives, Rev. Father Frank McElroy of the Sacred Heart church of this city will read the marriage service. The attendants will be Miss Dolly Lewis, a chum of Miss Tally, who will act as bridesmaid; little Virginia Gansley, a niece, flower girl; Monroe Hochheimer of Bakersfield, best man.

Several months ago the engagement was announced and since that time Miss Tally has been entertained by her friends here and in San Francisco, where she lived for many years. At many occasions she has been the recipient of many beautiful gifts, which will be shipped to her new apartments in the Hotel Alexandria in Los Angeles, where she will reside upon her return from a honeymoon trip.

Many friends from out of town will attend the wedding, which has been looked forward to with much pleasure. In her exquisite gown of cream brocade and tulle, Miss Tally will be a striking picture. She is a brunette of the Gibson type of beauty with charm of manner that has won for her hosts of admirers among both sexes.

Miss Tally was born in Virginia City, and passed the greater part of her life in San Francisco. Since the earthquake of 1906 she has made her home here.

MISS LILLIAN BELLE TALLY, WHO WILL BECOME THE BRIDE OF JULIAN CORF.

here. She is highly accomplished and has cultivated a rich contralto voice, which has won for her a place in the musical circles of the bay district.

Julian Corf is one of the leading wholesale liquor dealers in Los Angeles, where he is esteemed as a loyal booster as well as a man of keen integrity.

The couple plan to make a journey to Honolulu and later will travel to the Orient. They will settle in Los Angeles after their journey through the island.

NEW CITY CLERK ASSUMES OFFICE

T. C. Coughlin Inducted Into Chair by Retiring Official.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—T. C. Coughlin, the new city clerk of Alameda, was shown into office this morning by retiring Clerk Frank E. Browning, who is a witness in the Cohen electrical suit, plans to leave Alameda tomorrow for Phoenix, Arizona, to engage in business. He will make this trip by auto.

Coughlin is a well-known Alameda newspaper man. He is a graduate of St. Mary's college and holds the degree of bachelor of science. He spent three years in commercial life in San Francisco after leaving college and then took up newspaper work, which he successfully followed for the last 15 years. He was in the employ of various San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda newspapers at different times and has a high reputation for accurate and faithful newspaper service.

The non-partisan administration paid him a high tribute in considering his name for the city clerk's place. No other applicant was seriously considered in the non-partisan caucus, he being the unanimous choice. His election by the city board of directors was also unanimous, all nine members of the council voting in favor of giving him the place.

Coughlin is a married man, his family consisting of his wife, a young daughter and an infant son. He is an Alameda property owner, a former volunteer and city draman and one of the best-known newspaper men in the island city. Even the other applicants for the position of city clerk, who were tentative candidates pending the expected victory of the administration ticket, are pleased with the non-partisan choice of Coughlin for the place.

WHEELER REVIEWS COLLEGE CADETS

Gold and Silver Medals Are Presented to Winners of Rifle Shoot.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 23.—President Wheeler reviewed the semi-annual review of the University Cadets this morning at the regular drill hour at 11 o'clock. Men who made high scores in the recent rifle shoot were presented at the review with their medals. President Wheeler making the presentation.

The review was held of regiment formation in line of masses on the drill grounds, west of California Hall. Colonel George Dikens delivered the address. First, second and third battalions were in command of Captains Johnson, Jenkinson and Fisher.

Following the president's review, the regiment was reformed in hollow square on the drill grounds, for the presentation of medals. J. L. Ackerman, J. H. Ackerman, a member of the club, were presented with a gold medal for the highest score in the recent rifle shoot, and R. T. Mosker, a silver medal. Butcher and his wife were presented to all members of the rifle team by Major John T. Nance, commandant of cadets. President Wheeler made the presentation of medals.

Today was the final drill before the closing inspection competitive drill, which will occupy all day on May 2.

MISS DOROTHEA SPINNEY GIVES GREEK TRAGEDY

Echoes of Greek tragedy fell upon the ears of listeners at the Ethel Club yesterday when Miss Dorothea Spinney made her first appearance on this side of the bay. The slender, intellectual Englishwoman held her audience through the long recital of the woes of Spinoza and his family in attentive silence, and soft but earnest applause at the close showed their appreciation of her art.

Miss Spinney, clad in the flowing Greek costume of the ancients, spoke from a platform hung with dark blue curtains and set with two tall candles standing up from groups of call lilies carefully arranged in jars. Professor Gilbert Murray's translation of the Hippolytus of Euripides was used. A large and representative gathering bespoke the interest aroused by the occasion, which was one of the notable ones in the club year.

Miss Irene Rutherford was the presiding hostess, and had as her assistants the board of directors and a number of the club members.

DEATH FOLLOWS AN EXTENDED ILLNESS

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Lyander Hall Butcher, a well known resident of this city is dead at his home, 1441 Grand street, following an extended illness from a complication of diseases. Deceased passed away at an Oakland hospital.

Butcher had been on sick leave from his business for about two weeks ago. He became seriously ill and was removed to the hospital, where he died. Deceased was well known in the paint and oil business on the Pacific Coast having been associated with several large firms. He had resided in Alameda since the great fire of 1906.

Butcher was a native of Iowa, past 63 years of age. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Isabelle Butcher, and three children.

CIVIC BODIES MEET. ALAMEDA, April 23.—The regular meeting of the conference committee of the various civic bodies of this city will be held in the Chamber of Commerce this evening.

The committee is to take up the matter of a commission form of government and prepare a general scheme of government best suited to local requirements and conditions.

"BOOST GENIUS" MAY MANAGE NEW OAKLAND CLUB

J. E. CAINE.

J. E. Caine, secretary of the Salt Lake City Commercial Club, who raised that organization from a small association into one of the largest and most famous bodies of its kind in the United States, and who is known throughout the country as one of the greatest organizers of boost organizations, will be invited to be the secretary of the new Oakland Club. This was decided upon last night by the directors of the Oakland Club, who will place the matter for ratification before the entire membership at a mammoth luncheon to take place Friday in the Hotel Oakland.

Caine, while on a trip recently, visited Oakland and remained several days as the guest of the Oakland organization. He was shown about the city, made the guest at luncheons and other affairs, and gave the directors many practical hints as to the organization of the club, who were favorable to the impression made that the directors, after discussing the matter, decided to offer him the position, to be filled, of secretary and manager of the organization, and last night this action was taken.

The office force of the commercial club will be considerably enlarged when Caine arrives. It is expected. E. L. Farley will remain as assistant secretary, and Miss Nancy Baker, who has charge of the routing office work and accounting, will be given an assistant. A spirited campaign for a greater membership will be at once started.

O. E. Hotte last night was named as a delegate (from the commercial club) to the Portico banquet to take place in San Francisco in the near future. Resolutions of regret at the death of A. H. Ackerman, a member of the club, were passed.

Friday's affair will take place in the grill room of the hotel, and several speakers will be heard. President Harmon Bell will preside. The official vote of the organization will at once be recorded and forwarded to the new secretary.

POLITICAL SAFETY IN ADVERTISING

Publicity Expert Talks to the League of Republic Members.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 23.—Political advertising as the salvation of politics in America was urged before the League of the Republic yesterday afternoon by F. J. Cooper of the Cooper Advertising Agency. He spoke on "The National Campaign," a National Campaign. He said, in part:

"From the beginning of American history advertising has played a greater or less part in political campaigns. At first this publicity was easy because marching clubs furnished with hats and canes accomplished the desired results. From this simple beginning, through the stage of simple placards and posters up to the present complications in an advertising campaign managed by the national committee, the growth of political advertising was clearly traced by the speaker.

With the present exactness and watchfulness of the advertising committee it is impossible for any but the best to run the gauntlet of public opinion in the clear light of the common knowledge furnished by this advertising.

"This fact is the only means of keeping the national campaign from becoming an enormous game of chance in which eighty million people are the players and the office of President of the United States is the prize."

Mr. Cooper's lecture finished the series of lectures on "Political Parties" delivered before the League of the Republic. Next year's lectures to be delivered by various speakers at meetings of the League of the Republic will be on the general subject of "Immigration."

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Foy and family are to move from Berkeley to Alameda. Mr. Foy's friends will regret their leaving.

Mrs. Z. T. George will be hostess Friday afternoon for a bridge party, extending between 3 and 4 o'clock. Friends who are devotees of bridge.

Mrs. Warren Swaine has returned from a visit to the University of California. Mrs. W. A. Bissell entertained the Tuesday Luncheon and Bridge Club yesterday afternoon.

Miss Janet Painter, who is spending the summer in Santa Cruz with her family, is in Alameda for a few days on social engagements.

Mrs. Perry C. Windham will give a luncheon and bridge party at her home on Grand street, April 26.

Mrs. William Davis was hostess yesterday for a gathering of young society people at her home.

GERMAN CHILDREN TAUGHT 'TRADES'

Young Must Learn and Given Training for Some Vocation.

Germany does not allow her boys and girls to enter "blind alley" employments if she can help it. The German continuation school system takes hold of the boy of 14 or 16 as soon as he finishes the elementary school and prepares him for some particular trade or business. What the work of these vocational schools means in the sum total of German industrial efficiency and social progress is well indicated in a bulletin on "Prussian Continuation Schools" just published by the United States bureau of education. The information was obtained from American consuls located in important German cities.

HELPED TO SITUATIONS.

In Magdeburg boys completing the common school are assisted by the school authorities in securing desirable situations, and are required to attend the continuation school while employed. There are classes for bakers, butchers, barbers, writers, painters, decorators, blacksmiths, tailors, cabinetmakers, and in fact for any other occupation in which it is practically possible to be employed. Even if the boy does not aspire to be a skilled workman, but is content to become a street cleaner, house servant, messenger, or to engage in any other form of unskilled labor, he is nevertheless required to spend three years in the continuation school.

EMPLOYERS EXAMINED.

In Erfurt and other Prussian cities employers are compelled by law to examine their employees for the lesson hours without loss of pay, for four to six hours a week. Furthermore, the employers pay the tuition fees in these industrial schools, amounting to about $1.50 per year for an apprentice or $1 for unskilled workers. The main financial burden is met by the municipality, with some aid from the state. The state makes its appreciation contingent upon compulsory attendance, with the result that compulsory continuation schools are gradually replacing the optional type.

4000 IN ATTENDANCE.

Barmen has a continuation school with an attendance of nearly 4000. The pupils are divided into 121 classes. These classes in textiles, lace making, machine tool making, art forging, plumbing, electric installation, furniture and weaving, book binding and box making, lithography and engraving, baking and candy making, as well as for butchers, barbers and wig makers, messengers and helpers.

VOCATIONAL WORK.

Instruction in these continuation schools is by no means confined to technical branches. Besides definite vocational training, the pupils receive instruction in certain branches designed to aid them as citizens—civic affairs, trade history, and community welfare—in addition to compulsory arithmetic and algebra based chiefly on the vocational work.

TO GIVE FARCE COMEDY.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Isle City Council, Young Ladies' Institute, of this city, have in preparation a farce comedy, "Three Chateaus," which will be given in the Adelphi hall on a date to be announced shortly. The members of the institute will take all the parts, several male impersonations being among the number. "Three Chateaus" is now being rehearsed by the young players.

Before answering a call to duty most men want to know about the remuneration.

A bachelor must fight life's battles single-handed. Still, he spends his money that way.

POPULAR TEACHER TO BE BRIDE OF OAKLAND MAN

MISS YVONNE GREER.

An announcement of interest to friends on both sides of the bay is that of the engagement of Miss Yvonne Greer and A. Adrian Thiel of this city. The news was told yesterday at a prettily appointed luncheon given by the bride-to-be at her home across the bay.

Miss Greer is a graduate of the University of California and is at present head of the Domestic Science Department at the Girls' High School. She was formerly supervisor of domestic science in the Alameda schools, and is a writer, of clever verse and a vocalist of more than ordinary merit.

The wedding will take place this summer across the bay, and will be a quietly arranged home ceremony in the presence of a few friends.

Thiel is a well known business man of this city, and is popular among his business and social associates. The engagement is the culmination of a romance of eight years' standing.

WILSON BABY BORN.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Woodrow Wilson Coen, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coen, is the latest addition to the population of this city. Little Woodrow, arrived last Friday at the Coen home, 1839 Eighth street, and his parents have been receiving the congratulations of their many friends since the happy event took place. Little Woodrow is a lucky youngster and with his mother is enjoying splendid health. The Coens recently arrived in this city from Constantinople and will permanently reside here.

GYMNASIUM CLASS EXHIBIT.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—The Junior Gymnasium Class, organized by the Unitarian Church some months ago, is to give its first public exhibition and drill in the church hall on Grand street tonight. The exhibition will commence at 7:30 o'clock. The Haight School orchestra will furnish music and an interesting entertainment is promised.

DEATH CALLS INFANT.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Edward William Edwards, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Edwards of 1608 Sherman street, died at the home of his parents yesterday. The child was 18 months of age.

SPEAR IN DENIAL; CHARGES POLITICS

Heywood Campaign Committee Brands False Charges of Opposing Candidate.

BERKELEY, April 23.—Charles F. Spear, candidate for mayor, has addressed another communication offering a new date to Professor Thomas H. Read, one of the speakers of the campaign for Charles D. Heywood, Spear's opponent, for a debate on Read's charges against Spear's harbor board record.

Both candidates are holding several meetings an evening. For tonight Heywood has announced meetings at the Jefferson school and the Hillside club. Spear will hold the chief meeting of his campaign at the High School Auditorium. Spear's letter to Read follows:

"Your letter of recent date, regarding my request that you meet me on the platform at the Berkeley High School on the evening of the 23d instant, has been duly received. I am sorry that I am unable to accept your invitation at that time. I shall be pleased to receive from you, or the Heywood Club committee, with which you are connected, an invitation to be present and discuss with you the same question on Thursday evening, April 24, at the same place at the meeting in which you are announced as a speaker.

"In justification of my request, permit me to quote in answer to your observation that 'facts are not debatable,' the following excerpt from the communication furnished this week to the press by Frank V. Cornish, secretary of your committee:

"To the general public, it is confidently ventured that the public record of Spear's efficiency or lack of efficiency is pertinent and fair material for discussion on the public rostrum."

ST. PAUL ADVENTURESS UNKNOWN IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, April 23.—A dispatch from St. Paul, Minn., tells of the arrest of an alleged Berkeley girl, Miss Sarah McAllen, said to be a graduate of the University of California, who was arrested in that city on a charge of impersonating another woman and stealing. The girl claimed she was the daughter of a wealthy Berkeleyan, and on a tour of the country. Thwarted for adventure led to the theft she said. No one by the name is known in Berkeley.

ALAMEDA SERGEANT TO BE RETIRED ON PENSION

ALAMEDA, April 23.—The announcement that the police pension fund would require during the coming year $600 for the pension of Sergeant Albert Kamp, has created considerable comment in police circles. Kamp, however, is not immediately to retire. The pension amount mentioned must be provided for in the new year budget. Kamp, on the force since 1886, will likely retire on half-pay the later part of 1913. He will be the first Alameda police officer above the grade of patrolman to be retired on pension. A total of $1740 will be required during the coming year for police pensions.

FATHER OF ALAMEDAN DIES.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—W. T. Gordon of 1925 Park street has returned from the funeral of his father, David Everett Gordon, who passed away in San Jose on April 17. Mr. Gordon was a well-known resident of Alameda, at 800 Pacific avenue, until about four years ago, when he removed to San Jose.

OPPOSE HOMESTEAD BILL.

BERKELEY, April 23.—Sgt. William Wilson and Assessor Harry J. Squires are in Sacramento today to oppose the passage of the Weldon bill exempting homesteads or less than $1000 from taxation and reducing the assessment of homesteads of greater value. Squires declares the bill, passed by many Alameda men, means a loss of approximately $10,000,000 in Berkeley's assessment rolls.

ELSTON RESIGNS BLIND HOME BOARD

Loss of Other Duties Necessitates Withdrawal as Trustee.

BERKELEY, April 23.—J. Arthur Elston, a prominent local attorney and alumnus of the University of California, has tendered his resignation to Governor Hiram Johnson as a trustee of the California Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, located in this city. Elston of outside duties is cited by Elston as the reason for his resignation, acceptance of which has not yet been indicated by Governor Johnson.

Elston was appointed two years ago to the board of trustees of the institution. He served with George W. Read, W. H. Creed, W. P. Matthews and Dr. David F. Harrows. The trustees were known as a "reconstruction board," their appointment following an investigation of the conduct of the former administration of the school.

"The affairs of the school are now on a permanent and sure basis in the hands of the new principal," said Elston today. "and I find it possible at last to resign from the board. I have had so much outside work, both in my own business and in connection with the affairs of the university alumni, that I have not been able to devote as much time to the affairs of the institution as I ought to have in the position of trustee. I have not received word of the governor's action on the resignation."

STIFF FINE FOR SPEEDER.

BERKELEY, April 23.—Joseph Casero, chauffeur, 1412 Chestnut avenue, Oakland, was fined $50 yesterday by Judge Edgar for violation of the automobile speed ordinance. This, the heaviest fine yet imposed for such infraction, was assessed by Judge Edgar after Casero had been convicted of going 55 miles an hour on San Pablo avenue.

TO BEGIN INCINERATOR.

BERKELEY, April 23.—Work is to commence at once on the new garbage incinerator for this city. The plant will be erected at Second and Harrison streets. It will occupy ground space of 1500 feet, its foundation will be of concrete and the walls of six-inch concrete.

MOOSE CARNIVAL QUEEN CROWNED

Several Thousand Spectators Take Part in Opening Night Ceremonies.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Alameda is now in the midst of the greatest street carnival of the local lodge of Moose, and the crowning of its queen was the feature of the opening last evening, witnessed by thousands. The start of the royal parade was somewhat late, but the procession of the queen and her court were cheered along the line of march and again at the stand where the coronation was to take place. Preceded by the drill team of the Moose lodge, Queen Nell left her conveyance and walked under a personal of drawn words to the throne.

Mayor Frank Ode delivered the speech of the evening, in which he invited the populace to make merry, and dedicated the city to a reign of frivolity and fun. The dainty queen was then crowned and the festival was on.

Nelson G. Weiburn then read the official royal proclamation, bidding the subjects enter into the festive spirit of the occasion. Thousands of people swarmed into the various concessions, threw the rings and entered into other games of skill or chance.

Tonight will be devoted to visitors, and tomorrow evening the Oakland and San Francisco Lodges of Moose, headed by their drill teams, will attend in a body. The proceeds of the street carnival will go to the lodge's building fund.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS PLANNING FOR DANCE

BERKELEY, April 23.—Berkeley Parlor, Native Daughters, is making elaborate preparations for a dance to be given in Native Sons hall on the evening of Friday, May 3. The proceeds will be devoted to the parlor's Admission Day fund in the event that Oakland secures the celebration this year.

The committee arranging for the affair includes Miss Eloise Hall and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, with Mrs. Carrie E. Hall as chairman of the reception committee.

Thousands of Pupils Demand Removal of Accused Superintendent.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—Hardly 10 per cent of Pittsburgh's 70,000 school children are in attendance at the sessions today. The disorderly processions of children, through the streets, have been suppressed by police, aided by parents, but numbers of children congregate about schoolhouses from time to time.

The children arrested yesterday, while carrying banners demanding the removal of S. L. Heeter, superintendent of schools, were reprimanded and turned over to their parents today. A hundred or more pupils of the high school refused to attend sessions this morning, but moved away from the vicinity of the school buildings when ordered.

HOLD SERVICES FOR LATE MAURICE FINN

The funeral of the late Maurice Finn, a civil engineer, who died several days ago, was held this morning in St. Patrick's church, Seventh and Peralta streets.

Where a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Charles Sampson of South Berkeley. The funeral was conducted at the residence of the deceased, 1500 17th St. Alameda. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. M. R. Bronner, wife of the school director at Evan; Mrs. S. S. Walker and Mrs. Frank J. Ryan; four sons, John F., David A., William B. and Robert E. The interment was held in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were Francis McAllister, D. V. Green, D. Scully, Wm. McCarthy, J. Murphy and Richard Dowling.

The father completely exonerated young Durney from blame and said the accident was unavoidable.

500 ENTHUSIASTIC MOOSE AT ANNUAL INSTALLATION

DR. S. R. JACOBS (UPPER LEFT), E. R. DAWSON (UPPER RIGHT)
AND DR. P. A. TAGG (LOWER), WHO ARE PROMINENT OFFICERS OF FRUITVALE LODGE—Photos by Stewart.

FRUITVALE, April 23.—Public enthusiasm shown at the installation of officers of Fruitvale Lodge, No. 1152, Order of Moose, Monday night, is evidence of the popularity of the lodge in this district. Over 500 citizens attended the installing of the officers, a ceremony performed by Dr. S. R. Jacobs, who is district deputy supreme dictator. Amusement was coupled with business at the meeting, and a number of talented vocalists and pianists gave their services towards entertaining members of the lodge and their friends.

The following are the newly installed officers of Fruitvale lodge:

Past dictator, P. A. Tagg; dictator, A. A. Barber; vice-dictator, Thorwald Brown; past master, S. R. Jacobs; secretary, D. M. Jones; treasurer, E. R. Dawson; sergeant-at-arms, E. G. Munderf; leer guard, Fred Wolf; outer guard, Frank Ledeh; trustees, B. Zepherin, Saunders Hayes and A. H. Perry; doctors, Kirby Smith, E. S. DePuy, T. B. Holmes, J. G. Callen, L. Michael, Soren Nelson and Dr. Delta.

INSURANCE MEN ARE GUESTS AT BANQUET

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A luncheon was given in the Palace yesterday in honor of Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and James G. Parrish, a company director.

W. L. Hathaway was host, and among the guests were: William Sproule, Frank B. Anderson, Charles C. Moore, William T. Smith, Joseph D. Grant, John A. Britton, R. P. Scherwin, Hon. Warren R. Foster, Leon Sloss, John Harneson, A. C. Kahn, Rev. F. W. Clappett, M. H. de Young, W. Mayo Newhall, James McNab, E. W. Hopkins, Homer S. King, Robert Newton Lynch, R. B. Hale, Charles H. Schlacks, W. S. Miller, Wm. J. Dutton, Col. John C. Kirkpatrick, Thorndell Mulaly, Warren D. Clark, Dr. David Starr Jordan, Captain Wm. Matson and George A. Pope.

ALLOW SICK BENEFITS FOR ALAMEDA TEACHERS

ALAMEDA, April 23.—At a meeting of the board of education last night, two new resolutions were offered by School Director J. B. Langtree. The first provides a sick benefit for the teacher for the initial 15 days of illness. The second resolution provides that a teacher may absent herself from her class for three days on account of the death of a first degree relative.

MELROSE QUEEN CONTEST LIVELY

Votes Shift Positions of Candidates Almost Every Count.

MELROSE, April 23.—The constantly changing fortunes of the contestants for the position of queen of Melrose, carnival to be given by Fruitvale Aerie 1275, Order of Eagles, May 27 to 29, has roused enthusiasm to a high pitch. One count of the votes has been Miss Jessie Granholt in the lead, and the next elevates Miss Bertha Stadler to first place in the running. The queen committee, of which Lee Carden is chairman, reports that the count of the voting last night shows only a very fair state of contestation. The following shows the position of the various queens: Miss Bertha Stadler, 17, 24; Miss Jessie Granholt, 17, 25; Miss Vivian Gostlin, 17, 23; Miss Margaret Hoenigsmann, 10, 14; Miss Sadie Rostrom, 9, 7; Miss Emma Cook, 8, 23; Miss Ruth Zeltz, 7, 10.

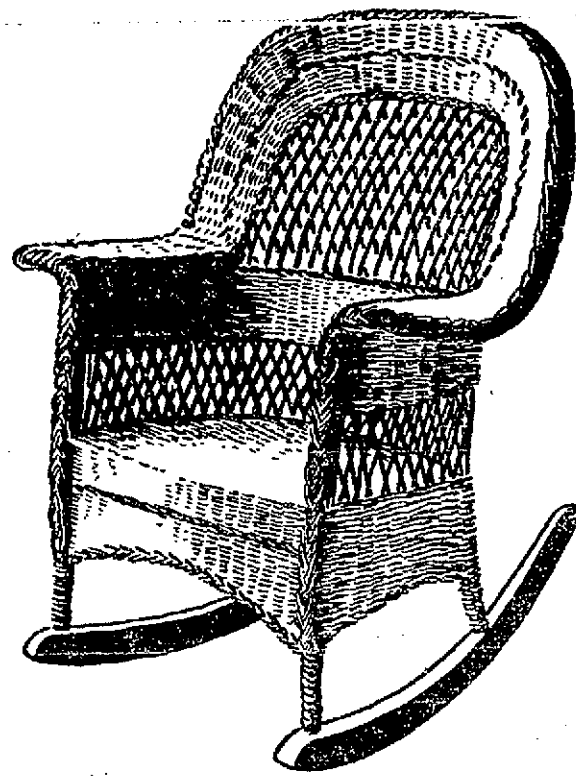

COMMITTEE WORKING HARD.
As the time approaches for the great carnival which will be held at Niles from May 18 to 19 as the biggest celebration ever witnessed in the eastern section of Alameda county, the efforts of the committee are redoubled in their efforts to have everything in working order to ensure the success of the fiesta. Parades, concessions, decorations and the many special features which will figure at the carnival are all in the hands of capable committees. New ideas are being constantly evolved and the ample funds subscribed by the citizens of Melrose gives the carnival full scope in carrying out most suggestions. A number of well-known Oakland horsemen have signified their intention of entering for the parades. An all-nation parade, in which the participants will be garbed in costumes characteristic of the various nations, will make an interesting and picturesque display. Preparations are being made for an all-night dance, which is decorated for the occasion, and the work of decorating will shortly be set about.

MOUNT EDEN YOUNG SET TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

HAYWARD, April 23.—The young people of Mount Eden are an "entertaining" and "dance" party Saturday at the Wigwam hall, Mount Eden. Jack Robertson is chairman of the committee in charge of the dance.

No Need to Have Superfluous Hair

(The Modern Beauty)
In delatone, a simple way has been found to remove hairy growths from the face, neck or arms, and one application usually is sufficient to permanently banish every trace of disfiguring hair or fuzz. This treatment consists in applying a paste made with water and a little of the powdered delatone. After remaining on two or three minutes, run it off and wash the skin, and it will be white, firm and hairless.
Short, straight eyelashes will grow long and have a silky sheen and delightful curl if proxin be applied at lash-roots with thumb and forefinger. Thin eyebrows come in thick and lustrous by rubbing on proxin every day. Use care and don't get any where no hair is desired.

Don't Be Misled by Unknown "Peddlers"

This is the Rocker now being sold by unknown "peddlers" from house to house in Oakland at a price ranging from $12.50 to $15 and on terms from "$2.50 cash, $1.00 a week" to anything they can get. Breuner's price on this Rocker is $9.75 and the terms are $1.00 cash, 50 cents per week.

Need we suggest the wisdom of buying from an old-established firm that guarantees its goods as well as its prices and terms to be RIGHT? The Rocker is in our window now—made of Teocotan grass and Indian reed—big, roomy, comfortable, yet light and easily moved about.

See Breuner's Exhibit at the "Manufacturers' Show"

California's famous mattress, Breuner's "Kapokeen," is being made before your eyes. A good chance for you to see what goes into the "best selling mattress in the state" and how it is made. Our entire show window front is also devoted this week to an auxiliary exhibit of merchandise "made in Alameda County." Step over to Thirteenth and Franklin and see how much your home town produces in the way of furnishings for the home.

No "House Cleaning"

The "Prantz Premier Electric Suction Cleaner" does away with the dreaded yearly house-cleaning, for it keeps the house clean ALL the time. Easy to run and easy to buy. $1.25 a week. Telephone us for free demonstration in your home.

Free Bungalow

We have given away five bungalows to our customers during the past five years. This year we shall give another one to some fortunate person—perhaps YOU. Have you got your tickets yet?

CARNIVAL TO AID OLD MISSION PLAN

Mission San Jose Restoration Committee Working on Noble Project.

NILES, April 23.—All indications point to the carnival which will be held at Niles from May 18 to 19 as the biggest celebration ever witnessed in the eastern section of Alameda county. The efforts of the committee are redoubled in their efforts to have everything in working order to ensure the success of the fiesta. Parades, concessions, decorations and the many special features which will figure at the carnival are all in the hands of capable committees. ### TO RUN MELROSE EXTENSION SOON

Oakland Annex to San Leandro to Be Ready in June.

SAN LEANDRO, April 23.—The Melrose extension of the Southern Pacific's suburban electric railway through the Oakland annex to San Leandro will be in running order at the beginning of June.
One line of track is already laid to the end of the line at Dutton avenue, and the track ballasted "now" at work on Seventy-third avenue, completing this line. A second line is laying the second line, and has progressed as far as Eighty-second avenue.

Greville that they, as Native Sons, who love the land of their birth and revere her "woolens" history, will lend their aid to this movement started by the Alameda County Native Sons and Native Daughters.

OLD HIGH SCHOOL PERPLEXES CITY

Suggestions to Be Offered at Voters' Meeting Next Saturday.

HAYWARD, April 23.—The disposal of the old high school in A street is the subject of wide discussion here.
It is suggested that the ground be purchased for the site of the proposed new town hall. Another suggestion has been made that the ground be fitted up as a playground for children, or as a public park. The disposal of the old school itself has also brought up a crop of suggestions, and many seem to favor the idea of turning it into a ward school in connection with the grammar school.
All these suggestions will probably be considered at the meeting of voters, which will be held in the High school in A street, next Saturday.
